CESARIO

Circulates, through Pennsylvania and all the other States of the Union, rising 7000 papers every publication.

Vol. VII-WHOLE No. 341.

PHILADELPHIA, FEBRUARY 9, 1828.

Terms, S2 in advance.

PUBLISHED BY ATKINSON & ALEXANDER, No. 112 CHESNUT STREET, BETWEEN THIRD & FOURTH STREETS, AND DIRECTLY OPPOSITE TO THE POST-OFFICE-EF COUNTING-ROOM ON HUDSON'S ALLEY.

ORIGINAL POETRY.

'Tis midnight! and the hush'd and silent earth abers beneath a blue and cloudless Heaven, And stars look forth like things of blessed birth, For mortal praise and contemplation given.

How glorious! how sublime! here thought may While the full heart adoring turns to thee; Thy power in all Creation stands confest. Johnvah! Saviour, Father, Deity!

And whilst I gaze upon those orbs of light, I love to deem that there, thy chosen, rest Infranchised spirits from a world of night, Vacting the final day to join the blest

Aud oh! may I amongst that number be-When quick and dead shall meet thee face to face Lord ! teach my wand'ring heart the way to thee, And o'er me cast the mantle of thy grace.

Like her, the guilty sufferer of yore, I too would touch thy garment's sacred hem, Thy pardoning love and mercy would implore, And humbly claim the blood-bought diadem.

My gracious Saviour, lowly at thy feet, Each day my aupplications must increase, se blissful words my ears shall greet, Daughter! thy sins are pardon'd-go in peace.
MNEMOSYNE.

LINES

On heating the echo of a Lady's voice, who had sung the "Echo Song" with admirable effect.

Speak, speak again, in tones so sweet, shrill, that Echo's voice may meet; Oh! 'twas bewitching, yet her strain Was wild-unearthly-speak again! I heard ! I heard ye both, but thought The spirit of the air had caught Thy mildest, softest, aweetest tone: Speak, and I'll list to her's alone. By Heaven! between the Fairy's voice d thine, in speaking, there's no choice ; But to decide it, sing, and she Shall vainly try to rival theev Oh! let me not entreat in vain,

Nor Echo, for "thy song again," ee both of us declare that thine, IVANHOE Is music-harmony divine.

LINES.

ile sleeps where no murmurs from woodland e'e

his soft and harmonious numbers; where his fore-fathers, thro' ages have slept, And tears been shed o'er their slumbers.

He sleeps where the ocean is troubled and deep, He sleeps on the breast of the billow,— Brave in death—tho' long is his sleep, On the wave's rising turbulent pillow.

He fell in the battle's commotion and strife, He fought for his country's glory; He gave her his blood -then yielded his life, To gild the bright page of her story.

Long may its brightness beam on her page, And each bosom shall swell with emotion; e the pride of our country, the boast of our Now has in the bed of the ocean.

TO TIME. -AN OHE.

Great Pow'r! whose destructive hand is laid On all things earthly, binding them decay, Before three like the splendid bow they fade, Or like the breath of Summer pass away.

The winds of heaven may blow-and storms arise la vain the tempest ev'ry effort tries, They still are firm, and solid as the rock.

I shou dost touch the beetling tower's top, How quick the ruin spreads itself around; Some after stone, the crumbling masses drop, ill all be levele'd lowly to the g

t & Mil-

M. D. M. D.

M. D. etry in the

D. M. D. College. heir office.

E

ound.

a the sand relaration: a value of confirmed having the blie down d after the rice, aus be gaves

Oram, depricing a continued bealth and it to di berneden M DAY.

BEE

Rome! when in youth, how stately and how grand, Tay domes and spires reaching to the skies; Within thy camp how many heroes stand, Thy matrons virtuous, and thy statesmen wise

Within thy walls the star of science rose, And act, with all her numerous works are thine; low every youthful Roman bosom glows,

When bending lowly at the crowded shrine. This to the gods a bumble prayer address'd: He mine the task, and every art of war, but home returning mark'd with many a sear." Where are they now? where are those noble tow'rs The prudent matron, statesmen, mighty chief, The youth, just dawning into manhood's pow'rs,

The rushing growd much given to belief. me spread his wand-they all have pass'd away, as the crystal water of the stream; he last gleam of Sol's retiring ray, The gorgeous pageant of an idle dream.

ho' time o'er many scenes has ca t a blot, Yet hist'ey shall her useful page unfold, Nero's eruelty be ne'er forgot, And deeds of Roman heroes oft be told.

en from such seener-Columbia next survey, Dear native land, what Time has done for thee ! e mak beneath a monarch's service away,

Now souring for above-both great and free. not long since o'er thy fertile soil, The Hunter of the forest careless roy'd ; back'd beneath the sun (unused to toil,)

Or sought the shady covert which he lov'd. here once the forest rob'd in green appear'd,

The busy towns with pleasing aspect rise; A here oft the heavy Indian Chief revered, In council sat, now art her business plies. lumbia! ever be revered that name. Oh! listen to each suff'ring nation's call; e thine the task, like Home, to rise to fame, seen the mind with every gift endued, Strong in each virtue, ev'ry vice abhor'd, As when the harp is struck with touch too rude

But never thine the fate like her, to full. Time struck the mind, and broke each thrilling

'actions past be shrouled dark as night, In mystery's gloom—thou hast the power to send glorious ray of all reflecting light,

That quickly brings suspicion to an end. tyet must come, what prophets did portend, (They far beyond the things of earth did soar,) That this frail planetary world should end, And thou, O Time! be felt or known no more

THE MAID OF THE MILL. BY MISS MILFORD

At a winding unfrequented road in the south of England, close to a low two arched bridge, thrown across a stream of more beauty than consequence, stood the small irregular dwelling the picturesque buildings of Hatherford Many a passenger has strayed his step to the the old buildings of Hatherford mill, backed by its dark orchard, especially when the accompanying figures, the jolly miller sitting before the door, pipe in mouth, and jug in hand; the mealy miller's man, with his white sack over his shoulder, carefully descending the out-of-door steps, and the miller's daughter fitting about amongst her poultry, gave life and motion to the The scenery on the other side of the road was equally attractive in a different style. Its principal feature was the great farm of the par-sh, an old manorial hous an old manorial house.

Iny mind that was the pleasanter scene of two; but such could hardly have been the general opinion, since nine out of ten of the passers by never vouchsafed a glance at the great farm, but they kept their eyes steadily fixed on the mill; perhaps to look at the old buildings, perhaps at the miller's young daughter.

ings, perhaps at the miller's young daughter.

Katy Dawson was accounted, by common consent, the prettiest girl in the parish. A complexion of the purest white, a coral lip, and a check like the pear her namesake on "the side that's next the sun," were relieved by rich curls of brown hair of the very hue of the glossy rind of the horse chesnut, turning when the sun shone on them into threads of gold.

But gay and smiling though she were, the fair maid of the mill was little accessible to wooers. Her mother, who had long since been dead, and

Her mother, who had long since been dead, and her father, who held her as the very apple of his eye, kept her carefully away from the rustic junketings, at which rural flirtations are usually junketings, at which rural firtations are usually began. Accordingly, our village beauty had reached the age of eighteen without a lover. She had indeed, had two offers; one from a dashing horse dealer, who, having seen her for five minutes one day, when her father called her to admire a nag that he was cheapening, propo-sed for her that very night as they were chaffer-ing about the price, and took the refusal in such dudgeon, that he would have left the house ut-terly inconsolable, had he not contrived to comterly inconsolable, had he not contrived to com-fort himself by cheating the offending papa twice as much as he intended, in his horse bar-gain. The other proffer was from a thick, sober, silent, middle aged personage, who united the offices of schoolmaster and parish clerk, an old crony of the good miller's, in whose little par-lour he had smoked his pipe regularly every Satur-day evening for the last thirty years, and who cal-led him still, from habit, 'young Sam Robinson.' He, one fine evening as they sat together smok-ing outside the door, broke his accustomed si-lence with a formal demand of his comrade's lence with a formal demand of his comrade's permission to present himself as a suitor to Miss Katy; which permission being, as soon as her father could speak for astonishment, civilly refused, master Samuel Robinson addressed himself to his pipe again with his wonted phlegm, played a manful part in emptying the ale jug and discussing the Welch rabbit, re-appeared as usual, on the following Saturday, and to judge from hi whole demeanor, seemed entirely to have forgot whole demeanor, seemed entirely to have forgot-ten his unlucky proposal.

Soon after the rejection of this most philoso-phical of all discarded swains, an important change took place in the neighbourhood, in the shape of a new occupant of the great farm.

The quiet respectable old couple, who had resi-ded here for half a century, had erected the mos-sy sundial, and blanted the great nullerry tree. sy sun-dial, and planted the great mulberry tree having determined to retire from business, were having determined to retire from business, were succeeded by a young tenant from a distant county, the younger son of a gentleman brought up to agricultural pursuits, whose spirit and ac-tivity, his boldness in stocking and cropping, and scientific management of manures chinery, formed the strongest possible contrast with he old world practices of his predecessors. All the village was full of admiration of the intelligent young firmer, Edward Grey, who being unmarried and of a social disposition, soon be-came familiar with high and low, and was no where a greater favourite than with his opposite or good miller A ary sirst teeming towards her new acquaint-ance was an awe altogether different from her usual shame-facedness; a genuine fear of the quickness and talent which broke out not mereiy in his conversation, but in every the or his acute and lively countenance. There was occasionally a sudden laughing light in his hazel eye, and a very areh and momentary smile, now seen and now gone, to which, becoming as most people thought them, she had a particular the result in the result aversion. In short, she paid the young farmer, for so he insisted on being called, the compliment of running away as soon as he came in ment of running away as soon as he came in sight, for three callendar months. At the end of that time appearances mended. First she began to loiter at the door; then she instened; then she smiled; then she laughed outright; then she ventured to look; then she began to talk in her turn; and before another month had passed, would prattle to Edward Grey as freely and carlessly as to her own father.

On his side it was clear that the young farmer, with all his elegance and refinement, his educa-tion and intelligence, liked nothing better than this simple village lass. He passed over the lit-tle humours proper to her as a beauty and a spoiled child, with the kindness of an indulgent brother; was amused with her artlessness, and delighted with her gaiety. Gradually he began to find his own fire-side too lonely, and the par-ties of the neighbourhood too bousterous; the lit-tle parlour of the miller formed just the happy arm, quietness without solitude, and society medam, quietness without solitude, and society without dissipation, and thither he resorted accordingly. His spaniel Ranger taking possession of the middle of the hearth-rug, just as comfortably as if in his master's own demesnes, and Katy's large tabby cat, a dog hater by profession, not merely submitting to the usurpation, but even ceasing to erect her bristles on his approach.

So the world waned for three months more. So the world waned for three months more. One or two little mills had indeed occurred between the parties.—Once, for instance, at a fair hold in the next town on the first of May. Katy having taken fright at the lions and tigers painted outside a show, had nevertheless been half led, half forced into the booth, to look at the real living monsters, by her ungallant beau. This was a sad offence. But, unluckily, our village damsel had been so much entertained by some monkeys and parrots on her first entrance. This was a sad offence. But, unluckily, our edit! No clearer mirror than the dark smooth village damsel had been so much entertained by some monkeys and parrots on her first entrance, that she quite forgot to be frightened, and after-leading with the royal brutes, on the gircam, she saw the rich tuft of meadow. Now the plain answer to this is, that these evils had taken so great a fancy to a beautiful panther as to wish to have him for a pet; so that this quarrel passed away almost as soon as it began. The second was about the colour of a riband—an election riband. Katy had been much caught by the graceful person and gradious manner of a country candidate, who called for many the first sound which she heard was Sophy's to remain the father, who called the remainder of the first sound which she heard was Sophy's to remain the father was to had taken many the father with the father was the father w riband—an election riband. Katy had been much caught by the graceful person and gracious manner of a country candidate, who called to request her father's vote, had taken upon herself to canvass their opposite neighbour, and was exceedingly astonished to find her request refused, on no better plea than a difference from her favourite in political opinion, and a previous promise to her opponent. The little beauty, astonished at her want of influence and rendered promise to her opponent. The little beauty, as-tonished at her want of influence, and rendered zealous by opposition, began to look grave, and parties would certainly have run high at Hath-erford, had not her candidate put a stop to the dispute by declining to come to the poll, so that the quarrel was perforce pretermitted. At last a real and serious anxiety overclouded Katy's nuocent happiness; and as it often happens in this world of contradictions, the grievance took he form of a grateful wish.

Of all her relations her cousin Sophy had ong been her favourite. She was an intelligent, long been her favourite. She was an intelligent, unaffected young woman, a few years older than herself; the daughter of a London tradesman, excellently brought up, with a great fleal of information and taste, and a total absence of airs and finery. In person she might almost be called plain, but there was such a natural gentible about her, her manners were so pleasing, and her conversation so attractive, that few people, after massing an expanse of the processor. her conversation so attractive, that lew people, after passing an evening in her society, remembered her want of beauty. She was exceedingly fond of the country and of her pretty cousin, who, on her part looked up to her with much of the respectful fondness of a younger sister, and had thought to herself an hundred times when most pleased with their new neighbour, how I wish my cousin Sophy could see Edward Grey! And now that her cousin Sophy had seen Edward Grey, poor Katy would have given all that she possessed in the world if they had never possessed in the world it they had need met. They were evidently delighted with each met. They were evidently delighted with each other, and proclaimed openly their good opinion.

—Sophy praised Mr. Grey's vivacity; Edward professed himself enchanted with Miss Maynard's voice. Each was astonished to find in the other a cultivation unusual in that rank of life. They talked and laughed, and sang to-gether, and seemed so happy, that poor Katy. without knowing why, became quite miserable; fled from Edward, avoided Sophy, shrank from her kind father, and found no rest or comfort except when she could creep alone to some solitary place, and give vent to her vexation in tears.—Poor Katy! she could not tell what ailed her but also wear with a rest that she was wretch. her, but she was quite sure that she was wretch-ed—and then she cried again.

Affairs were in this posture, when, one fine evening towards the end of June, the cousins sallied out for a walk, and were suddenly joined by Edward Grey, when at such a distance so variously beautiful; now fringed by rushes and sedges; now bordered with bittle thickets of hawthorn and woodbine and the briar rose; now overhung by a pollard ash, or a silver-barked beech, or a lime tree in full blossom; now a smooth turfy slope, green to the eye and soft to the foot, and now again a rich embroidery of the golden flag, the purple willow herb, the blue forget-me-not, and a "thousand fresh water flowers of several colours," making the bank as gay as a garden. It was impossible not to pause at this lovely spot; and Sophy, who had been collecting a bright hunch of pink flowers, the ragged robin, the wild rose, the crane's bill, and the fox glove, or to use the prettier Irish name the fox glove, or to use the prettier Irish name of that superb plant, the fairy cap, appealed to Katy to "read a lecture of her country art," and show "what every flower as country people hold did signify"—a talent for which the young maid of the mill was as celebrated as Bellario. But poor Katy, who, declining Edward's profered arin, had lottered a little behind gathering long wreaths of the woodbine and the brieny and the wild vetch, was, or pretended to be, deeply ongazed in twisting the gathad round her straw engaged in twisting the garland round her stray not, and answered not a word. She tied on bonnet, however, and stood by listening, lst the other two continued to talk of the symbolic meaning of flowers; quoting the well known lines from the Winter's Tales. At last Edward, who during the conversation had been gathering all that he could collect of the tall almond scented turts of the elegant meadow sweet, whose crested blossoms arrange smiling at grief," but she soon arose with a ighbour, our good uniter.

Katy's first feeling towards her new acquaintnee was an awe altogether different from her nee was an awe altogether different from her said, holding up his nosegay, "I do not know said, holding up his nosegay, "I do not know what mystical interpretation may be attached to what mystical interpretation may be attached to this plant in Katy's country art, but it is my faculte and lively countenance. There was occasionally a sudden laughing light in his hazel earn and now gone, to which, becoming as lost people thought them, she had a particular version. In short, she paid the young farmer, our so he insisted on being called, the compliant of running away as soon as he came in dow, and wherever lotter this tribute, wherever I place this tuft, the homage of my heart, the proffer of my hand shall go also.—Oh, that the offering might find favor with my fair queen!" Katy heard no more. She turned away to a little bay formed by the rivulet, where a bed of the bay formed by the rivulet, where a hed of pebbles, overshong by a grassy bank, afforded a commodious seat, and there she sat her down, trembling, cold, and wretched, understanding for the first time her own feelings, and wonder-ing if any body in all the world had ever been so unhappy before. There she sat, with the tears rolling down her cheeks, unconsciously making "rings of rushes that grew thereby," and Edward's dog Renger, who had been watching a shoal of minnows at play in the shallow water, and every now and then inserting his hoge paw into the stream as if trying to catch one, came to her and laid his trying to caten one, came to ner and not no rough lead and his long curling ears in her lap, and looked at her with "eyes whose human meaning did not need the aid of speech;" eyes full of pity and of love; for Ranger, in common with all the four-footed world, loved Katy dearer; and now he looked up in her face, and licked er cold hand. Oh, kinder and more faithful her cold hand. Oh, kinder and more faithful than your master, thought poor Katy, as with a fresh gush of tears she laid her sweet face on the dog's head, and sate, in thest-position as it seemed to her for ages, whilst her companions were hooking and landing some white water him.

At last they approached, and she arose hastily At last they approached, and assessment to escape observation. "Your garland is loose Katy," said Edward, lifting his hand to her bonnet. "Come and see how nicely I have fasten-and, the true abound which she heard was sopply a affectionate whisper—"I knew it all the time, Katy! Every body knew it but you! and the wedding must be next week, for I have promised Edward to stay and be bride's-maid." And the very next week they were married.

FOR THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

LA BAGATELLE.

With a joyousness of heart that knew no alloy with a devotedness of feeling no time could mpair, did I visit the home that had been the scene of many a youthful gambol. Each gnarld oak, each beauteous locust that grew around the decaying mansion, reminded me of som childish sport that I had pursued with a buoyancy of spirit, with a fulness of zoal, that no fatigue ould damp, that no weariness could overco each field, each grove and rivulet, inspired me with thoughts, filled me with recollections that pread delight over my soul, and charmed me nto a sweet and perfect joy. The reflection that the for whom I had relinquished a beloved ho for whom I had left a fond and adored mother would smile upon my success and affectionately hail my return, made up no small share of my general happiness; to find her as I had left her, beautiful, kind and innocent, I hoped and expected-faithful I knew she was Does deceit dwell in Heaven; does Hypocrisy enter the shode of Purity ! if not, thought I, she is faithful. I was no Philosopher, I weighed not in the cold scale of reason and experience the words of her whose look was beauty, whose smile was heaven; I thought rather of hastening to her presence, renewing my vows, reciting my joys, while she, with the blush of love, should and sigh "unutterable things." Accordingly as soon as possible, though a black cloud rested in the west and threatened a storm, I sallied forth with my umbrella in my hand, and my cloak on my arm, for both of which I had most pressing need-it rained torrents, it blew a hurricane-the wrath of God seemed to pour upon the verdant fields, and doom them to fierce solation; but I passed on with a firm tread, and inwardly pleased at the thought of surprising my beloved. Her dwelling was soon gained; I rapped-all was silent within, my heart beat wildly by Edward Grey, when at such a distance from the house as to prevent the possibility of Katy's stealing back thither, as had been her usual habit on such occasions. The path they chose led through long narrow meadows sloping down on the either side to the winding stream, enclosed by a servant, who in answer to my enquiries, and all the family were gone, except his young through hodges, and seemingly shut out from the world. A pleasant walk it was through those newly mown meadows, just cleared of the hay, with the bright rivulet meandering through banks for an answer. But how amazed, consults the bright rivulet meandering through banks for an answer. But how amazed, consults the bright rivulet meandering through banks for an answer. But how amazed, consults the bright rivulet meandering through banks for an answer. But how amazed, consults the bright rivulet meandering through banks for an answer. But how amazed, consults the bright rivulet meandering through banks for an answer. But how amazed, consults for an answer of the properties, and she was in the parlour. Delighted, we work that the family were gone, except his young the family were gone, except his young through banks and she was in the parlour. Delighted, we work the family were gone, except his young the family were gone, except his young through the family were gone, except his young through the family were gone, except his young through the family were gone, except his young this young the family were gone, except his young through the famil and loudly; I rapped again, the door was opened in close tete-a-tete with one whom I knew to have formerly been her most ardent admirer. She arose, I thought, with calinness and received me with " sad civility." Where was the rapturous kiss, where were the sighs and tears, I had of so foolishly pictured to myself? where the con> fessing blush I had so warmly counted upon I roused myself, and after one or two common place questions, departed, though gently urged The roaring storm was in unison with to stav. my feelings; I bared my head to its fury, and rushed distractedly forward. Upon reaching home, the letters I had read so often, the likeness I had kissed so fondly and so frequently, were soon packed and addressed to her, with a note merely requesting a reciprocal favour. No opportunity occurred until the next day of sending the pack age, but my passion was still at its height, and 1 saw the bundle depart with a fearful pleasure-the messenger returned, but empty handed .-What," said I," does she dare to think of reaming my letters as trophies, that she may onquest she has so cruelly abused?" Maddened at the thought, I was soon again in the hor-

FEMALE EDUCATION.

The expediency of cultivating the intellect of man is pretty well settled at the present day, and it seems difficult to imagine why that of woman should be neglected. If it have similar powers and equal strength, it is as deserving of are, and will repay care as well; if it be weakcare, and arrower, it needs the more to be strengthened, enlarged, and disciplined. If the purpose of society and of life would be promoted by the ostablishment of domestic slavery, then every spark of intellectual light in the female Helot should be carefully extinguished, just as birds in a cage are binded that they may not look upon the forests and the fields, the blue heavens and the green earth, and long to be abroad upon the air, till melancholy should stop their song. But religion and policy alike revolt at this.—Man's best happiness, like charity, begins at home, and like that, is apt to stay there; and home is sure to be what the wife would make it. Now if it were true, that a woman who can do any thing besides making a pudding or mending astocking. er and narrower, it needs the more to be strengthwere true, that a woman who can do any thing beasdes making a pudding or mending a stocking. Littleton's!

"Heyday, Sally' what is the matter?" was a well than any one who can do nothing else; if it were true, as certain it is not, that a wife submits to conjugal authority just in proportion as she is ignorant and incultivated, how can the great purpose of marriage, the mutual and reciprocal improvement of the mortal and intellectual natures of the sexes be prounded by a union upon such unequal terms! It is some times urged, that if a woman's mind be much colarged, and her taste refined, she is apt to think differently of the duties of life, to require different pleasures from the rest of her sex; that her feelings leave the channels which the institutions of society have marked for them, and run riot, and bring her usefulness and happiness into danger. Now the plain answer to this is, that those cvils happen, not because her reason was cultivated, but because it was not cultivated well, and because the taste and intellect of women gener-ally do not receive due culture.—Worth Ameri-

From Rood's Whims and Oddities.

There is a deal of natural feeling and pathetic playfulness about the following specimen of the portion of the volume

SALLY HOLT AND THE DEATH OF

SALLY HOLT AND THE DEATH OF JOHN HAYLOFT.

Four sames in the year—twice at the season of the haff-yearly dividends, and twice at the intermediate quarters, to make her slender investments—there calls at my Aunt Shackerly's, a very plain, very demure maiden, about forty, and makes her way downward to the kitchen, or upward to my cousin's chamber, asmay happen. Her coming is not to do chair-work or seedle-work—to tell fortunes—to beg, steal or borrow. She does not come for old clothes or for new. Her simple errand is love—pure strong disinterested love passing the love of women—at least for women.

not one good feature, except those which John Hayloft made for her in his dreams: and to judge from one token her partial fancy was equally answerable for his charms.—One precious lock

she sat like Patience on a monument smiling at grief," but she soon arose with a calm, affecting dignity, and went in quest of them—so mild, so tender, so soft, she seemed, that I almost released held forth the letters with a faint smile; I hesitated, then stretched out my hand to receive them; our fingers touched—it does not make the state of the stretched out my hand to receive them; our fingers touched—it was electrical—the letters drop. gers touched—it was electrical—the letters dropped—I clasped her in my arms, and was about to impress upon her lips the kiss of reconculisation, when I awoke, and found I had my pillow in close embrace.

D. Hard to receive them; our hard reconculisation when it was electrical—the letters dropped in her own manner. Affliction vents itself in various modes, with different temperaments; some rage, and others compose them extremely some sleep, some pages about death, and others poetize on it. Many take to a bottle, or to a rope. Some go to

It was pathetical to behold her grief; ludicrous that she knew no better how to grieve.

It might have been thought that she was in an act of enjoyment, but for an intermitting O dear! O dear! Passion could not wring more from her in the way of exclamation, than the tooth-ache. Her lamentations were always the same, even in tone. By and by, she pulled out the—the cropped yellow, stunted, scrubby hair, then she fell to rocking—then O dear! O dear!—and then Da Cano. O dear! Passion could not wring more from her in the way of exclamation, than the tooth-ache. Her lamentations were always the same, even in tone. By and by, she pulled out the—the cropped yellow, stunted, scrubby hair, then she fell to rocking—then O dear!—and then Da Capo.

It was an odd sort of clergy, and yet, simple as it was, I thought it worth a thousand of Lord Littleton's!

was an older sailor than I, and assuming a veteral's privilege, took the lead in the conversation. He had sailed chiefly in small craft, and had been so unfortunate as to have been four times overset at sea.

On one occasion, said he, the vessel was laden with sugar, which dissolved at sace and thus saved her from sinking. The crew contrived to crawl to that part of the bottom which remained above the sea. In this situation, appeared to the know how to begin. To the violent the might have brought soothings to the desponding, tests of patience and resignation, to the hysterical, salvolatile; she might have seked the sentimental for the story of her woes. A good scotding in useful with some sloggish priefa—in some cases a cordial. In others—a job.

If Sally had only screamed, or believed, or fainted; or gone stupid; or raved, or maid a collect, or moped about, it would have been easy to deal with her. But with a woman that only rocked on her chair—

What the devil could my aunt do!—— Why, nothing:—and she did it as well as

Nature of the half-yearly displaced, and twice at the intermediate quarters, to make her sleader into discussions of the half-yearly displaced, and twice at the intermediate quarters, to make, her sleader into discussions of the half-yearly displaced and the property, and makes her way downward to the kitchen, or means to my count's channels, a many happing and the property of the third of the property is the has a right of the property of the property is the has as the property of the active of the worthy Dominie Sampson to the tail boylkerian, be called an unnatural working! I have seen the huge presentation orange, unscappid from the homely specifically companies to the property of the prop

A SAILOR'S STORY.

not one good feature, except those which John Hayloft made for her in his dreams: and to judge from one token her partial fancy was equally answerable for his charms.—One precious lock—no, not a lock, but rather a remnant of very short, very coarse, very yellow hair, the clippings of a military crop, for John was a corporal—stood the foremost item amongst her treasures. To her they were curls—golden, Hyperian, and cherished long after the parent head was land low, with many more, on the bloody plains of Salamanca.

I remember vividly at this moment the existacy of her grief at the receipt of the fatal news.—She was standing near the dresser with a dish, just cleaned, in her dexter hand. Ninety nine women in a hundred would have dropped the them—

weep, some sleep,
weep, some sleep,
and the moon, which was nearly full, three its sober hight against the sais, among the ropes, and upon the deck of the vessel. We had been drifted by the current part the mivelled, travelled, maddened, nor ranted, nor ranted, nor hung, nor fuddled herself—she only rocked herself in the hitchen chair!

The action was not adequate to her relief.
The got up—took a fresh chair—then another—and another—and another—and another—till she had rocked all the chairs in the kitchen.

The thing was ticking to both sympathies.
It was pathetical to behold her grief, ludicrous that she knew no better how to grieve.

It might have been thought that she was in an act of enjoyment, but for an intermitting O dear! Passion could not in the way of each.

befel more than one of his contrades. At length, on the fourth day of their disaster, they described a sail standing forwards them. The wind was fair, and the stranger approached them rapidly, so that they could soon discover that the vessel had been disabled in the late gale. As she came up, the sufferers began to dread lest they might not be observed; for their circumstates they formed a regressible observed that the vessel with the sufferers began to dread lest they might not be observed; for their circumstates they might not be observed; for their circumstates they might not be observed; for their circumstates they might not be observed; for their coverable observed the make people appear guilty of sources, and all the days of the youth—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight? The loopes of the vosted—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious fight?

The CENTRE OF GRAVITY.

Two thirds of our ordinary motions are found to the possed away, the same of the days of the youth—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The loopes of the vosted—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The boyes of the vosted—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The boyes of the vosted—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The boyes of the vosted—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The days of the youth—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The days of the youth—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The boyes of the vosted—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The days of the youth—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The days of the youth—form they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The boyes of the could wise they promise decay the loopes of the could wind they possed away, With their viscous of glorious tight?

The central possed away, and they possed away, and they possed scarcely formed a perceptible object above the ocean. This terrible apprehension, though soon removed, was succeeded by another scarcely or. As the stranger approached, the whole a company came to the side to gaze at them; with feelings more heart sickening, that felt unable to relieve them; for no boat the long boat had been washed from fact, the long boat had been washing the vessel, and at every roll, fragments of the jolly boat could be seen, dangling from the stern. If the sensations of those who clung to the wreck were agonzing, those of the stranger's crew were not the most enviable. They seemed brought by Providence in presence of these unfortunate men but to pity them, and bear to their anxious friends the story of their

of his life. After gazing antiously at the vessel, and convincing themselves that safety was only a to be found in their own exertions, the ship-wrecked sailors began to strip off the tattered at of his life. After gazing anxiously at the vessel, and convincing themselves that safety was only a relation also to this topic. Man requiring a lawys to mountain his perpendicularity, insensibly regulates and ascertains that point by the fixed and known position of objects about him. The others soon understood and seconded their colleavours. They came as close to leevard of the wreek as their own safety would permit, and then stopped their progress, by balancing the efforts of their sails. Unmindful of the sharks reflects in carriages and in swings, or on looking which were obscine between the versels, the them; the others, holding over ropes, assisted on a wall or a roof, in looking them to gain the channels, and received them roof, or the stars in the zenith. on their hospitable dock. One must there is between sea-faring nion when they meet on the ocean, a bond of unity, and a strong feeling of sympathy, which ever prempts them to stretch forth a helping hand to a distressed brother. It of sympathy, which ever prompts them to stretch forth a helping hand to a detressed brother. It arises from the common reflection that they are seperated from the land, and from the dwelling place of man h<sub>j</sub> a vast expanse of dangers, and it assisted by the possibility of their one day needing the same service from others. At all events, whatever may be its source, this feeling certainly exists, and gives a turn of semishity to the rough and viccous character of the sailor. In this little take of the gea, there was one incident more striking than all the rest; if gives an idea of what one is capable of when placed in a situation of desperate necessity. Our captain had been among the first to leave the wreck, and was already ascending the side of the vessel which had come so providentially to their relief, when the dreadful recollection crossed his mind, that his little brother had never swam in helife. He shuddered at his neglect, and determined to return with a rope to his assistance. to ped to return with a rope to his assistant Concern his astonishment, as he turned in hast Concerne his automatiment, as he turned in and to effect his purpose, at seeing the little fellow swimming, like a fish, towards him. There was a shark so near him, that in striking on his arms they cause in contact with the harshaide of the animal; but it turned away harmlessly side of the animal; but it turned away harminessly, for it was no doubt glotted with foed from the wreck. Thus he reached the dock of the vessel in safety, and there the joyous embraces and hurried questions of his brother reminded him that he had never swam before. This idea added to the fatigue he had undergone, for a moment overpowered him, and he fainted into the heatlet's arms. The award which received mannest overpowered him, and he tainted mid-his brother's arms. The vessel which recoved them, arrived at its place of destination a few days after, and the little fellow who gained strength meanwhile, attempted to seem in the river, but he sonk like a stane; indeed he never swam again; for his inflerings on the wrece and excessive indulgence, when taken off, habroken him down and he was soon after gathered to his fafter's. This story, with two others of more fatal consequences though leas interest-ing in their details, caused me to look upon r captain in the light of a Jonas; but nothin ppened to disturb the tranquility of our pahappened to disturb the tranquility sage, which was completed in an alu calm, at the end of thirty-six days.

From " The Pindges of Feminiship or New Year's Gift for BY JOHN ROWSING, MAG.

When memory looks back on the record of years, Ere reasons and teching decay. Ere the footsteps we have on this valley of tears, Are weet, when delight has been cober'd by age, The weet, when delight has been cober'd by age,

To sweet, when delight has heen sobor'd by Ta glance on do morner again; To glade ever the abouts of adversaty's page— They see to not so denote then.

As the tempest brings calm, as the hone front

As the slaw using disperses to slay, the son and the about a of variation florings

A beautiful light on our way;

And passon and rapture, when tempered to thought,

Notrose but of happiness leave;

Evergrid when remaindered is transported tought—
How vata, leave ungraviful to grave

1. 6's houses and runca - its gladeness and gloom,
Do they woods together /- Chi an

The floor rate we plack, and knowless their perfume
The wreals in the dearst we think?
Lake the bee, thoughts its over the field of the past,

Authors are partial to their wit 'in true, But are not arities to their judgments ion.

FRIENDSHIP. A friend should always like a triend indice, Speak as he thinks, and as he thinks should write;

Searching for faults as he would beauties find. To friendship true, but not to justice blad. ON OATHS.

Of all the nauscous complicated crimes, That shoth infect and stigmatize the times, Phore's none that can with improve cache compare, When vice and folly have an equal share

The mething spirit which flew up to Heaven's chancory with the sath, binshed on he gave it in, and the BEAUTY. BEAUTY.

Beauty like ice our own footing doth betray,
Who can trend sure on the amouth slippery way,
Floated with the passage we alide swiftly on,
And see the dangers which we cannot aloue.

ney talour would degenerate into ben nessing into pedantry, and the genterior de-lete affectation; even religion itself, unless be the handmald whish, waits upon her, is

THE CENTRE OF GRAVITY.

Two thirds of our ordinary motions are governed by the habitual necessity we find of preserving the centre of gravity.

When a man rises from a chair, he is seen first to bend the body forward, so as to bring the centre of gravity over the feet or base, and then he lifts at up. If he hilt too soon, that is, before the body be sufficiently advanced, he falls back again.

So with his heely close to a gain.

Dost those worsing find?

Or sigh for the trappongs that wealth may claim, While penny's vise them must tread; Mourn not the van atrike for gold, glory, or power—they would he would ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the works of the world to hom, And his hone to gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world ask not gold, glory, or pleagure or power—the world of the world to hom.

A man standing with his heely close to a perpendicular wall cannot bend forward to pick up any thing that has no the ground near him, without himself falling forward, because the wall prevents him fean throwing part of his body backward, to counterbalance the head and arms that must project forward. A man little versed in such matters, offered ten guineas for permission to try, under these circumstances to possess himself of a purse of £20 laid before him he of course lost his money.

The panful affection called sea-sickness, has a relation also to this topic. Man requiring a feature of £20 laid sea-sickness, has a relation also to this topic. Man requiring which were pluying between the vorsels, the whole party of services new plunged off and seem a lefty precipice, where known objects being distant, and viewed under a new aspect, seem the others, holding over ropes, assisted on a wall or a roof, in looking directly up to a roof, or the stars in the reinth, because standards disappear; on walking into room, where there are no perpendicular light and shade, as when the arrangement of spot; on turning round, waltzing, or on a wheel; because the eye

FUR THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

On the death of the good and tredy righteous Rev. Joseph Easthurn, who departed this lite on the 20th of January, 1823, regretted by all who had my knowledge of his name; it alone certical with it benevolence and good will towards all, but more feel or deplace by low more than the "Marners," to whom he has proved a second Saviour under Heaven, and became the instrument of awakening many to the new and Holy Life existing in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

ord and Saviour.
The Light house sheds her welcome ray. Upon the occan's swelling breast, When the light both pass'd a ray, That still is glimmering in the west.

The Mariner, with mexicus eves, On gazes in the netcome star, To the bright beacon neath the skies,

To gaile the feelde back afar. Then west the star, that light supreme Which show upon the shattered back, And brought the ship wreck'd from the

Thou wert the light-house on the shore, The star and be seen of the sea,

But, sh! that light will shine no more, Our land hope's dead, dear saint with thee When on the mighty deep, no fear

For thou wouldst offer up a prayer To loll the storms and fears to rest. A holy calm would glute afar

O'er the bosom of the sea, And sweet Religion's holy star, Would give the prayer of joy to thee But now thou'et come, dear holy man,

The sailer breathes his humble strain, For then reach'd Housen's happiest plan To leave behind a righteous name

Facewell once more—the tears I shed, Are tears that we and joy both give Wu-because then art cold and dead, Joy - because thou art blest in heaven.

QUAKERS.

QUAKERS.

We have never read a more elegant or more just cologium than the following notice of the Quakers. It is contained in a note to one of Lawrences lectures, published in Salem, Mass:

*In complementing the Quakers for not having fol-lowed the warble and destructive example set is fore them by the rest of maskind, I might out to have one eved my probe in the consist form of blame, because irons is often manufersoond, even where we may think such a mistake alimit impossible—as in the case of the good bashop, who declared burstell highly pleased with Guiliver's Travels, but added, Like the best three field of the park, For key the field of the park, For key the result of th

following calculations, which will arrive to show to all, who are ignorant of the fact, the very low price at which newspapers are usually put. We went to our shelves and took down a vo-lume published in London - price in boards $2,50, and on making as commate, found that our paper for a year contains as much as sine such volumes for a year contains as much as an exich volumes worth at $2,50 each, $22,50! It startled us: can it be, we thought, that our paper is so very low? We took a volume in boards published in Buston, and having made a similar comparison, found that making the letter-press, or reading found that making the letter-press, or reading matter of that volume, our guide, we ought to charge for the Chronicle $12,50 a year? But perhaps periodical pamphlets come cheaper. Here then is the American Journal of Education, an excellent work, and nobody complains of its price.—Judging by that, as above, the advance price for our paper should be $10,00; and taking the National Preacher even for our guide, it should be $9,00! We will apply one other test—the severest in our power. We have on our —the severest in our power. We have on our deak the Little Tract, "Improvement in Farm,"—we recommend it, by the way, to our agricultural friends, they ought all to read it published by the American Truct Society, and

For Marcy is hovering hear,
And kinelly she listens the broken prayer,
And reasures the contribe tear.
And points, through Death's gloom, to her glorious Bower.
Where the life we shall five both no lone is hour.
CORNELIA.

FANCY BALL AT PHILADELPHIA We have been obligingly furnished by a friend, (say the New York Exeming Pont,) with the following ex-tract of a letter, containing some account of the late Famey Hall at Pubadelphin :—

" The assemblage consisted of between and four hundred persons, selected from the supreme bon ton of the city, the greatest pre-caution having been taken to secure a salutary exclusion. The most splendid and becoming exclusion. The most splendid and exclusion. The most splendid and costumes that could be procured, were displayed by the wearers to the greatest advantage, either in promenading or in dancing to couldons exception musicians ecuted by an orchestra of seventeen musicia in a room, in which the effect of eight hundred lights produced a brilliancy calculated to eclipse the sun himself, when under the influence of one of his most subtime efforts. To those un-accustomed to sights similar to that presented accustomed to sights similar to that presented on this occasion, (and we presume it was fami-liar to none, it being the first attempt of the kind in this country,) the illusion of being sud-denly transported to some region of fairly land was complete. For a long time scarcely a syl-lable escaped from the Lips around, which breathed the most and streaking smiles of the breathed the most soul speaking smiles of de-light; but after the overwhelming impression of the entree had subsided, the time thus lost was soon made up for, and the dancing which now enced continued with the greatest spirit until five o'clock in the morning, although the hour of assembling, at half past eight o'clock was at the request of the managers punctually

Among the dresses of the gentlemen, the most dmired was, one consisting of a white satin mic and waiscoat, with a chaste embroidering of gold, with cap and plumes, sword and shoes corresponding. Lord Leicester, to whom our readers have been formerly introduced in Kend-worth, was so accurately represented in costume, manner and tout ensemble, as almost to transport the beholder, in idea, into the actual presence of his lordship. It was gratifying to observe that amidst all this scene of gayety and thoughtlessness, the profound scholastic char-acter of the present day very ably represented, and sustained under the garb of a Cambridge student, who had every appearance of being equally accustomed to the society of peers and proctors—the halls of the great, and the clois-

ers of the university.

If I allowed myself to listen to the dictate of my gallantry, by alluding to the ladies, who of course constituted the essential charm of the evening, I ought not to omit mentioning the bewitching enchantment of all, from sulfannas to shepherdesses; but I dare not enter into the de-scription; although I cannot pass over in silence the "Fairy of the Star," who was perfectly divine, and seemed-no, not seemed, but actually did glide through the mazes of the dance resting on the thin air alone, supported by her beautiful wings and subduing all around by the magical enchantment of her star spangled wand at least so it appeared to me.

No person was admitted into the room but i ecess of the entertainment. A number of who did not choose to participate in the revel were admitted to the orchestra as spectators, where the attractions of the scene ained them to the excessive disappointment of those to whom a transfer of tickets had been

PARISIAN FASHIONS.

also a rich sembroidery in bampacts of myrtic haves. Chopens at white evape, ornamented with an intermentation of Provins roses and bland draperies, and trimmed under the brim with knots of rose coloured gauge ribard. Braschets, everings, and neck chain on mark with a cross of height gold, the breachts are Greeian, of the notique force, and rockly wrought in open work. Lawrender coloured Grass de Naples sips was a White kid glaves.

pen with the kalgiores.

Exeming Dress A dress of white crepe lisse ringed much shove the knee with wreaths of leaver trimmed much above the knee with wreaths of leaves in white satur. The careage mode to the shape is meaningment of presence with a shanting load of crepe base, eat in points, which are edged with white satur. The carriage is not appare, and very low, and finished cound the host with a narrow pointed bland. Sheeves extremely short and finil, terminating in a posited band to correspond with the potentiae. The hair is dressed very high behind, and in full cuts on the temples, and meanmented with choines do gatheries to dead gold, which are wound round the head in every direction, and form a broad beninders on the forehead. Beneefets, next glain, and ceintere to correspond. Diamond extensing and cross. White grow de Napies shoes. White kid gloves, Carved troop lan.

published by the American Tract Society, and therefore, sold as every body knows, at a price proverbially low. Yet in order to make the same amount of letter-press as dear in our paper, as in the publications of that Society, we ought to charge $2,28, in advance !—and yet fault is found with us for asking $2.

When you find a man who talks more of himself than any thing che, you may asfely set him down as a being wholly destitute of genius or ends, fill and sink, as soon as circumstances remerit. move this ballast, though the owners have been inited.

anxiously seeking this removal as a blessed desideratum. How often do we see the overturned! • God gives us, with a father's care,

Howe'er impostly we complien,
To each their necessary share
Of joy and sorrow, health and pai

THE EVENING POST.

OFFICE No. 112 CHESNUT STREET. 82 PER ANNUM-IN ADVANCE.

Messrs. Carey Lea and Carey have recently published the lifth edition of the Elements of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, to which are prefixed two Discourses on the history and Im-provement of the Materia Medica, originally de-livered as introductory lectures. By N. Chap-man, M. D. Professor of the Institutes and Pracice of Physic and Clinical Practice in the Uni-ersity of Pennsylvania. In two volumes.

Mr. Small has just published a new school ook, entitled the "New Expositor," by Mrs. Hughs.

Mr. Grigg has just published a very excellen work, which is entitled a "New General Atlas, according to the Geography of M. Malte Brun." The atlas contains forty well engraved large quarto maps, of the two hemispheres, Europe is of Europe in seperate maps; Asia its principal divisions; different maps of the islands of the Pacific Ocean, and fourteen of Ameri

SOUTHERN REVIEW.

The Charleston papers of the 26th. ult. announces that the first number of the Southern Review was to appear agreeably to the prospectus on the first of February. The Charleston Mercury says:-Its contents are made up of classical, scienific and biographical articles: and from what we earn of their subjects, promises a rich treat to he lovers of philosophical and elegant reading. We shall hail this new born star in the Southern skies, with a glad welcome and trust it will prove the herald of many more. It is time for the Carolinas to rely on their own intellectual resources, and to give some proof to our common country, that we too, are capable of exhibiting fairly and fearlessly, our sentiments on the inter-resting topics of the day; and our taste on the literature of the ago.

For the Saturday Evening Post.
The Justices of the Poor House in the County

Burlington, N. J. at their late meeting con-ided to cultivate the Mulberry with a view to making of Silk.—And as the process generilly is in its infancy in this country, such informed of the mulberry may mation as where th mation as where the sect of the miliberry may be obtained; the mode of sowing and cultivating them, and the management of the worms, &c. as would aid them in the undertaking would not only be thankfully received by them, but might confer a benefit on the community A TRUSTEE.

COMMUNICATION.

COMMUNICATION.

We are requested to state that a general re-hearsal of the "St. Cecilia Society" will be held on Tuesday Evening next, the 12th inst. at the Masonic Hall, when the members are particular-ly period to attend

Agreeably to the returns made by 127 practi tioners of Midwifery, there were born in the last year in the city and liberties of Philadelphia 3581 Male, and 3452 Female Children, making the total number of births 7033. The total num per of deaths was 3945, viz. 1152 of males of 20 rears of age and upwards, and 922 of females under 20 years. There were 443 returns received at the Health Office of persons who died at the Alms-House during the year; and 757 persons of colour are included in the statement of interof colour are included in the statement of inter-ments. The difference in the number of birth and deaths, is 3088. The number of deaths is unusually small for our population; and that of births greatly exceeds the average of previous

The bill is still before the legislature of Penn-ylvania for the education of children employed in cotton and woollen manufactories. section provides that after the first of January 1830, it shall not be lawful for any cotton or woollen manufacturer to employ in his manufac-tory, any minor between the age of 12 and 18 years, unless said manufacturer shall enter into a written obligation before some competent ma gistrate to provide for the instruction of sain minor in reading and writing. "We hope," say the New York Evening Post, "at may become a law, and every state in the union will follow the example set them by Pennsylvania."

Agreeably to the returns, the total num of deaths, in the city and liberties of Philadel phia the last year, was 3945, viz: 1152 of male of 20 years of age and upwards, and 1026 of males under 20 years of age; 845 of females of 20 years and upwards, and 922 of females under his annual report to the Common Council, from which it appears that the whole number of deaths, in that city, was 5181, being 208 more than the preceding year.

of Spring Garden, having received the signature of the Governor, has become a law. The commissioners of the bank met on Tuesday evening last, at the Commissioners' Hall in Ying ning last, at the Commissioners' Hall street, between Eighth and Ninth street. After having organised themselves by an election of officers, they adjourned until Tuesday the 14th ust, when regulations will be made for the books for subscripsions to the stock. The capital will be $250,000, at $50 per share.

A man by the name of Lycum Willis, com-manding a small Oyster boat belonging to Phi-ladelphia, committed suicide by shooting him-self with a fowling piece, between Chester and Marcus Hook, lest week. The self with a fowling piece, between Chester and Marcus Hook, last week. The sloop came too at Chester, and a more shocking and mangled corpse cannot be well imagined. It is said, that he committed this dreadful act under symptoms of insanity, caused by inebriation.

BITUMINOUS COAL.

An extensive and probably inexhaustible mine of this species of coal, entirely resembling the best Liverpool, has been recently opened on the cast branch of the Susquehanna, Pa. about 180 index above Haltimore. It is inid to ignite with equal facility as Liverpool coal, and in combustion entirely resembles it. On analysis, it appears to contain the same qualities as the Orrell coal, with the exception of a somewhat larger proportion of carbon and less of bitumen—this proportion of carbon and less of bitumen—this difference, however, is not perceptible when ig-

The following article we extract from the Baltimore Patriot of Monday:

"Fotal Duel."—On Saturday morning last, Mr. Bond Martin, and Mr. —— Carr, students of medicine, left the city for "the field of honour," near Bladensburg, to settle a dispute of a trilling nature in its origin—they met at eight trifling nature in its origin—they met at eightaces, when Mr. Martin received, on the first ces, when sit, and the state of and has since been conveyed to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the residence of his father, Chief Justice Martin. Mr. Carr is from Virginia residence of his father,

AUCTION DUTIES.

By the annual report of the Comptroller, in pears that the duties on sales by auction, in State of New York, for the year ending o e 30th Nov. last, amounts to $295 From the City of New York, unts to $298,288 65 viz 296,862 57 From the City of Albany, - - - 1,054 30 From other places, - - - - 372 77 372 77

On Saturday week, Mr. William C. Newkirk. on Saturday week, Mr. William C. Newkirk his daughter, a daughter of Mr. John I. New kirk, a daughter of the Widow Malatt, and young man whose name we have not learned, al residents of the town of Florida, N. Y. were drowned by falling through ice in crossing the man whose name we have not learned, all of the town of Florida, N. Y. were choharie Creek, in a sleigh, Accounts from Opelousas, Lousiana, of the 29th of Dec. represent the crops of cotton as large, and the quality much improved. The sugar cane had been planted by a number of enterprising individuals. Mr. Rogers, from less than four acres of Rattoon cane, had made even and a half hogsheads of sugar, of a supeor quality

BACHELOR'S BALL AT NEW YORK. The Merchants Telegraph, noticing the arlor's Ball on Valentine's Eve. makes the fol-

owing remark:—
"To prevent it from being perceived how ra oidly their phalanx is diminished, the whole saog glasses, that they may see their shadows as ney pass, and deceive spectators with a multiplication of images.'

A letter from Jacksonville, East Florida, dated 8th of December, says—" Fruit was never so abundant here. The Oranges raised in St. Augustine are by good judges, estimated at two millions, and there are nearly as many more on the St. Johns. They sell at 71-2 to 10 dollars per thousand. I have sold several boxes at 2 dollars per hundred, selected to send abroad as presents. A good crop of Cuba Tobacco has also been raised this season; it is thought sufficient to supply the place with segars. The cultivation of ar cane has been very successful this season and a considerable quantity of excellent sugar has been manufactured; numerous specimens have been exhibited here. There is a general have been exhibited here. There is a general disposition among the Planters to discontinue the cultivation of cotton, and turn their attention to sugar and oranges. The latter is the most profitable cultivation in the United States One acre has produced a thousand dollars in one

HOTEL AT NEWPORT, R. I. The Mansion known as the Brinley house, sit-uated on the hill, with a fine commanding pros-pect, is to be fitted up for a Marine hotel, to be opened the 1st of May.—Extensive additions to the building are in a state of forwardness. It will have a piazza 150 feet in length, a hall 90 feet long, and every accommodation calculated to render it a retreat for persons who visit this delightful island in summer in pursuit of health or pleasure. An establishment of this kind has been wanted in Newport, and in connexion with the salt water baths will offer, next sumner, healthful and convenient attractions

From an estimate in a late number of the Sun Aron an estimate in a late number of the Sun day School Magazine, it appears that more than 175,000 children, in the United States, attend the Sabbath schools that are connected with the Union. If to these be added the Methodist, and other schools, not in connexion with the Union, it will increase the number to 250,000, or 300,000. Some practical economist has made an estimate of the expense of living on the conti-nent of Europe. It seemeth that a gentleman, his wife, three children and two servants, can live very handsomely in Holland, for 250 pound of year. In Flanders, Liege, for example, they might have as many comforts for half the amount year. In Flanders, Liege, for examine, they might have as many comforts for half the amount, or for the same number of francs, say 1201. At Paris, the expense would be about 5000 francs, or 2001 a year. In the German towns along the Rhine, such as Heidleberg, about 1001 of 1201.

been concerned in the late riot at South Boston. The riot arose from a dispute between two Irishmen, one of whom was from Tipperary, and the other from Longford. They agreed to make a fair fight of it, which took place on Friday evening last. Neither party getting enough on that occasion, the business was adjourned over to the next day. In the meanwhile the friends of the rival houses of Tipperary and Longford here. ival houses of Tipperary and Longford becam rival houses of Tipperary and Longford became interested in the affair. On the 28th the armies met to the number of two hundred, and a battle ensued of nearly an hour, which was put a stop to at last by ringing the bells and bringing out the fire department. Some eight or ten were left wounded on the field of battle, and numbers went away with their crowns cracked.

COMMON SCHOOLS OF NEW YORK. It appears by the Annual Report of the Su-cerintendant of Common Schools in New York, ust made to the Legislature, that of the 742 owns and wards in the state, 741 have made reports according to law, and that only one town is delinquent. That there are in the towns which have made reports, 8298 school districts, and consequently the like number of schools organized, and that returns have been received from 7800 of those districts. That 179 new school districts have been formed during the year 1827, and that the number of districts which have made returns exc. eds that of the preceding year by 250. That there are in the districts whose trustees have made returns, 419,216 children, between the ages of 5 and

A line of telegraphs has been established from the New York Exchange to Sandy Hook. "For the New York Exchange to Sandy Hook. "For the Lind telegraph, a pole with two arms is all that is necessary, and for the marine or slip sighthat is necessary, and for the marine or slip sighthat is necessary, and for the marine or slip sighthat is necessary, and for the warious positions and, thereon flags. By the various positions and combinations of these arms and flags, simal or common schools, exceeds by 17,808, the value of the line of ual report.

In 1816 the number of children returned In 1810 the humber of children retun-nstructed in the common schools, was 14 ince which time the number taught has be since which time the number taught has been ad 301,750.

The sum of $222,689 44 cents has been paid to the several school districts during the year 1827; of this sum $100,000 was paid from the state treasury; $110,542 32 cents was raisedly a tax upon the several towns in the state, and $12 453 45 cents was derived from a local school fund which certain towns possess.

At the late session of the legislature of Rich Island, a law was passed appropriating teaths and dollars to the support of school, to be apportioned between the towns according to the number of children in each under sisters was of age. It is found that the number of children is as 20.5. A statement of the apposition of age. It is found that the number of ciss 35,205. A statement of the apportionment each town is given in the Newport Republica.

LOSS OF SCHOONER PULASKE

LOSS OF SCHOONER PULASKI.

The schr. Pulaski, Captain Beckman B. Va.
Buren, which sailed from Trinidad de Coha a the 8th August last, bound to New York, shr being 4 days out, was totally lost in a viole gale of wind, which swept off the round lame.
Capt Beckman D. Von Beuren, chief mats, Grand Stediford Morschalk, second mate, the man at the helm, and the cook, were all swey overboard and lost, leaving two men, who, she being 8 days on the wreck, were taken off yr Captain of a Philadelphia brig, and carried at Trinidad de Cuba; one of whom died the a cond day after being landed.

A distressing occurrence took place on the sage of the ship Niagara, from New York is Savannah. On Thursday, 24th ult. Chariston Light, distant 20 miles, Mr. Conway thragedian, a passenger, while the others were dinner, suddenly jumped overboard. Every cantion was made to save him, but owing to the heavy sea and strong wind from the N. E. and the ship under a press of sail, all efforts were fruitless. ruitless.
The following Farewell, which we copy for

The following Fareness, which we copy feather New York American, unites the inspiration of poetry with the deep feeling and wandering genius of a melancholy mind. There are reason for believing that it was transmitted some tendays since. The signature has attracted attaction, but whether the author was the gifted and proportional transmitted in the course meter matter. infortunate tragedian, is of course mere mi of conjecture:

THE FAREWELL

A wanderer, doom'd to dwell
On foreign shores a solitary man,
To home's lov'd scenes lamenting thus began,
The parting, and farewell. I leave my happy home,
The streams and meadows I have lov'd so long,
And the fair city, with its joyous throng,
O'er the rude waves to roam.

O'er the rude waves to roam.

Farewell thou valued one,
Thou guide and biend of my departed years,
Thou mother of my youth, why gush thy tears.
In blessings of thy son?

Farewell? oh, never more
Shall thy dim eyes behold thy wayward child;
Nay, mother, do not thus with accents wild
Thy bitter fate deplore.
Father, to the Lboy.

Father, to thee I bow, Asking thy blessings with this warm embrace; Chide not the unmanly tears upon my face, The paleness on my brow. Alas! how shall I part
From thee, my father, and not wet my check
With tears that tell of love, and drops that speak
The sadness of my heart?

But ye, that wonder so, With uprais'd eyes to see your brother weep, Soon shall those little lids, scal'd up in sleep, Forget a brother's woe,

And thou, whom next I love,

And thou, whom next I love,

To thee "dear kindred blood?" that fills my vein.

Furewell to thee—augments all other pains

That I in parting prove.

But see!, the white sails swell, Ah! blest companions of my early youth,
Dear objects of my fondest love and truth,
Sweet home, and friends, farewell!
CONWAY.

We have mentioned, says the New York Daly M-vertiser, the voyage made by Langsdorf, Roman counsellor of state, on some of the Rivers of Besk in the year 1826. It occupied seven mould is eight days, and terminated at Goyaba, a town statistic on a river of the same name. During a considerable to the eyes of the travellers every day, and the list, quadrupeds and screpents of the box family, we nature ones, and many of them were interesting a scientific point of view. The party shot a great may animals of different descriptions: deer, gosts, town, wolves, ounces, otters, apes with shining black skas, New New Leaded. Among the fish they took were sixty new species, of which drawings and description were obtained. The traveller wrote that he stook to pass about a year in that vast country; when he would pass through the diamond district, and also the rivers Negro, Arinos and Tapajoz. This would being him to the Amazen, on which he would coalest his journey.

is fourney. He describes the Parana as a majestic River, or his journey.

The describes the Parana as a majestic River, ome mented with numerous beautiful islands, which residence the paragraph of the cutered and ascended beaving this, is much dreaded by bootmen, on sensit of its rapidity. At Camapuam, the head of negation, it is not less than 700 feet above the level for Parana. Their boats and Ingeoge were transported every two leagues and a half of table land to the fair vice Coching, in carts drawn by fourteen access.

The trials to which the expedition were expension the Paragraph of the expedition were expension that act in, and was accompanied at clouds of musepations, which tormented the laft and coarsinen, highting on them in such numbers listled tooked atmost tike black men. The stream is resulted to the surface is covered with water just attained with red clay, and contaminated with deal find Adigators abound, whose presence is between the waters of the river, not however on their assents.

EPITOME OF NEW

The funeral of the Rev. Joseph Eastburn, attended on Saturday, by an exceedingly need ous concourse of citizens of every age and fession: the Rev. clergy of the various descriptions of the strength o nations, mariners generally, and those whe having seed his disinterested labours and appre ated their results. The new ordinance for regulating the fand the new coaches, went into operation on Manager than the new tention of tention of the new tention of the new tention of te

The large building in Chesnut street, his day.

The large building in Chesnut street, last occupied by the post office, is undergoing repair, and we understand, will be converted into a loss of public entertainment.

The Canal Commissioners, A. Lacock, Estagives notice that Nathan Waldo, John Wilst and Thos. O'Brien, contractors on the list Canal near Pittsburgh, have absconded, six receiving money for their contracts, without pring those who have done the work.

On Saturday last, at 2 o'clock, an elegistic of the contracts of the work of the contracts of the work.

The 'Red Rover,' a new boat, was an absorbing the 'Red Rover,' a new boat, was on Marched against another of about the six of the contract of the contract the dis —the l The ded the ticket.

Mr. G. Free appoint sylvan We was c conter It is year, i New 1 The fifty in $20,00 The

H. Re The dollars Fore in exh A la is state An of New rate a of 200 Burges Terry, domest represe A nu petitio rate a priate ! Ther ton. S. Imme into N

Georgia The list of hirty s during 241,55: bled at purpose Majo in Janu of insp upper Mr. Review Americ Lynr of shoe 3300. 500,000

Gene guest o states, of her ington. The Susque without adopted Grain Powde lives le in Balt

The more f Chilian The N. Y. i and mu The Europe and cor yet exis

in cons handier

for inte Superst indigen are exc degree seamen temper peculia his seci gods of his hai importa do the skilful mate in gates. more re shake e Con. Ther deep, th

and but sporting of the ancient quence things are not her to natural other n which of wh hues of less bes may ha the firm man is to seek few wh water, to be rewed by four men. They performed the distance in six minutes and thirty seconds—the Red Rover a little ahead.

The Legislature of Massachusetts have decided that the electors of president and vice president shall be chosen in that state by general A duel was fought a few days since near Fort

Mitchel, Geo. between a Mr. T. E. Burnside and Mr. G. W. Crawford, in which the former was killed.

Frederick Smith, Esq. of Reading, has been appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of Penn-

We hear that the boot of the Easton stage, was cut on Monday, near this city, and four trunks taken therefrom. Two of the trunks were next day found, stripped of most of their

It is stated in a letter from Holland that last year, in a population of upwards of six millions, there were but two executions? A black Snake, 3 feet long, was killed in To-boyne township, Perry county, Pennsylvania, on

New Year's day last.

New Year's day last.

There are in Massachusetts one hundred and fifty incorporated woollen and cotton manufactories with an aggregate capital exceeding $20,000,000.

The public are cautioned against receiving counteriet $10 notes of the Manhattan Banking company in the city of New York, dated July 1,1825, letter F. f. payable to T. Phelps,—H. Remsen, Prest., Robt. White, Cashier. The tax on marriage licenses for the city and county of Baltimore, last year, amounted to 3,386 dollars.

Ford's panorama of the Falls of Niagara, dollars.

Ford's panorama of the Falls of Niagara, covering five thousand square feet of canvas, is in exhibition at Washington. The painting is commended for its beauty of execution.
A lady near Doylestown, Bucks county, Penn. is stated to have a remarkable bed Quilt, which was composed of twenty-seven thousand, six hundred and fifty-six pieces.
An application will be made to the legislature of New York, at their present session to incorporate a company to be called the New York iron company, with a capital of 100,000 dollars, with liberty to extend the same to 200,000 dollars.
The Governor of Georgia has offered a reward of 200 dollars for the apprehension of Thomas Burgess, charged with the murder of Champion Terry, in Jasper county.
Resolutions in favor of further protection to domestic manufactures have passed the house of representatives of New York, by a vote of 97 to 3.

to 9.

A number of New York physicians are about petitioning the legislature for an act to incorporate a medical college in that city by the appropriate name of Manhattan College.

There was to be an masquerade ball in Charles-

S. C. on the 29th ult ton, S. C. on the 29th ult.

Immense numbers of Hogs have been driven into N. Carolina, and S. Carolina, Virginia and Georgia; pork is consequently plenty and cheap.

The whole number of Officers on the pension hat of the United States is eight hundred and thirty seven. The issues of Continental Money, during the Revolution, amounted altogether to 241,552,780 dollars.

The legislature of South Carolina re-assembled at Columbia on the 21st of January, for the purpose of trying Judge James, on articles of impeachment.

Major General Scott arrived at New Orleans in January from Tampa Bay. He is on a tour of inspection of the forts on the Gulf and the upper western posts.

Mr. Sparks, editor of the North American Review, has sailed for England. The North American, during his absence, is to be conduct-Lynn manufactures and exports a million pair of shoes in a year. Its population, in 1820. was of shoes in a year. Its population, in 1820, was 3300. A million pair of shoes must be worth 500,000 dollars, at least.

General Jackson arrived at New-Orleans on the 8th of Least-the 8th of January, and was received as the guest of the state, by the committees appointed for that purpose.

The Louisiana Courier of the 14th of Jan.

states, that the steamboat Feliciana, burst her air boiler the preceding evening, and that two of her crew were killed.

A second and final city assembly is to take place in New York on the birth-day of Washington. It has been determined not to try a strange half, on the occasion.

fancy ball" on the occasion.

The bill for a Rail-Road from Baltimore to the Susquehanna passed the Senate of Maryland without opposition, and it is thought, will be adopted by the house.

About one o'clock on Saturday morning the Grain Mill, belonging to the Ætna Company Powder Mills on the Liberty Road, blew up; no lives lost. The concussion was distinctly felt in Baltimore City, and many alumberers thought it was an earthquake.

The brg Peruvian, expected shortly at Baltimore from Lims, is to bring out Mr. Campino, a Chilian minister to the United States.
The Hudson river is again open as far as Poughkeepsie. Sloops have arrived at New York from Newburth. it was an earthquake.

Poughkeepsie. Stoops York from Newburgh.
Considerable injury was sustained at Buffalo,
N. Y. in consequence of a violent gale on the 27th and 28th ult. Many vessels in the harbour were driven from their moorings, and several canal boats were left high and dry.

The lower part of the town was inundated, and much damage done to the merchandize in the store.

The division of employment that is found in Europe, and which brings in its train a peculiar and corresponding limitation of ideas, has never that the corresponding limitation of ideas, has never the corresponding limitation of ideas and corresponding limitation of ideas, has never yet existed in our country. If our artisans have in consequence been less perfect in their several handerafts, they have ever been remarkable for intelligence of a more general character.—Superstition is, however, a quality that seems indigenous to the ocean. Few common mariners are exempt from its influence in a greater or less degree, though it is found to exist among the seamen of deficient seconds in force, that are orresponding limitation of ideas, has never seamen of different people, in forms that are tempered by their respective national habits and peculiar opinions. The sailor of the Baltic has his secret rites and his manner of propitiating the gods of the wind; the Mediterranean mariner tears his him. his hair and kneels before the shrine of some important saint, where his own hand might better do the service he implores; while the more skilfal Englishman sees the spirit of the dead in the storm, and hears the cry of a lost mes-

PHROPPAN ADVICES

By the packet ship John Jay, capt. Holdredge, rom Liverpool, London papers to the evening of the 7th of December, inclusive, Liverpool of the 8th, and Lloyd's List of the 7th, have been received at New-York.

It will be seen from the following extract from he Liverpool Chronicle of the 8th, of Decemburg Bank, has been arrested at Liverpool:

Successrut. Pensurr.—Nathaniel Snelson,
Teller of the Discount-office of the Bank of Virginia, having absconded, on the 21st Octo-ber, with about 40,000 dollars, chiefly in Virgi-nia bank notes, of $100 cach, and bills upon some houses in Liverpool, was traced through the United States to Quebec, where he took his the United States to Quebec, where he took his passage on board the Mary Cumming, bound to this port, which sailed on the 2d Nov. twelve hours before his pursuer resched that place. Notices of these circumstances, with copies of a handbill describing his person and offering a reward of $500 for his apprehension and safe delivery to the jailor of the town of Petersburg, from which he had absconded, were forwarded hither by a vessel which sailed from Quebec on the 3d November, and arrived here on Saturday, as also from New York, by the packet ships as also from New York, by the packet ships Leeds, which arrived on Tucsday; in the latter of which one of the Directors of the Bank came as a passenger. Boeghey and Roberts, the police officers were accordingly directed to look out for the arrival of the Mary Cumming, which they boarded as she was entering the King's Dock Basin, on Wednesday last; and acquaining the delinquent with their errand, received from him about $30,000 in notes and bills, being the whole of the stilen property that remained. as also from New York, by the packet ship the whole of the stolen property that remained. He also quietly surrendered himself, and expressed his willingness to return to America with the gentlemen who had followed him hith-

AFFAIRS OF GREECE.

"My last was of the 3d inst. when I mentioned "My last was of the 3d inst. when I mentioned to you that we had just learnt the affair of Navarino. Since then we know of the Sultan having heard of it before it was publickly known. He disarmed the populace, forbidding any one, upon the pain of death, to carry arms, by which measure the usual excesses that follow such events were prevented: and we are quite tranquil, though naturally under considerable anxiety till we hear of the determination of his Ottoman Highners, and whether he will follow his head-Highness, and whether he will follow his head strong measures, or agree to the proposed armis-tice. My own opinion is, that he must ultimate-y yield to the demands, which is the wisest thing he can do, or he may lose Greece altoge-ther. We all hope that the Sultan will yield, which will put an end to this protracted war, with its attendant evils. The Admirals have said that they intend to put down all piracies, and will take strong measures immediately. Something favourable is done at Stamboul."

"The U.S. ship Warren has been to Miconi, and fired into the town, made the primates of the Island prisoners for a day or two, landed nearly all her crew, and searched the Island, and

The Greek army, under Col. Fabvier, about 1500 strong, are upon the island, endea-couring to reduce the castle, but to day Captain Hamilton and the French admiral have amilton and the French admiral have g he army away."

We are still without decisive news, says the New York Daily Advertiser, from this Republic. We have papers from Maracaybo as late as the 30th of December; and Caracas dates a few days later. The attention of the country is fixed on the preparations making for the Grand Conven-tion; but we are not informed of the charactor and dispositions of the persons named for dele-gates. Our papers contain a decree of October gates. Our papers contain a decree of October 26th, ordering the organization of the militia in the provinces on the northern coast, for security against the expeditions fitting out at Ferrol and Cadiz. In the province of Valencia, are to be formed 8 batallions of infantry, and 5 companies of artillery; in Maturia, 3 batallions; in Sultantia, 18 batallions; in S nos of artiflery; in Maturia, 3 batalions; in Sulia, 2; in Magdalena, 5; and in the 1sthmus 2.

These troops are to be in constant readiness to take up arms, and white in actual service will be paid like regular troops. They are also to be disciplined on the same system; and the corps of cavalry of the liberating army, in several of the provinces, disbanded in 1821, are to be re-orga-

The Elisha Tyson, at Baltimore from Tampice orings intelligence that the extraordinary session of the federal congress of Mexico terminated or the 24th of December, and that the regular ser

PHILADELPHIA

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1828

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

makes us believe it "worthy a place."

Spragge and Van Tromp—an excellent article, containing the leading incidents in the lives of these naval commanders, shall be published next week. Our correspondent I B. S. of New York, from whose pen it is, will accept our highly beneficial in cases of the most obstinate kinds st thanks for his favour.

be inserted.

Olden Times, No. 2—Friendship, and Extract of a letter from Georgia are on file. We have not yet read them.

Harley, next week.

. QUACKERY.
We are of the few who think that the term Quackry, in its usual sense, is quite too limited in its apmate in the storm, and hears the cry of a lost meanate in the guists that sweep the water he navigates. Even the better instructed and still more reasoning American, has not been able to shake entirely off, the secret influence of a sentiment that seems the concomitant of his condition. lication, and we hold that inflated pretensions in a is applied, may be considered the danger of the pretionent that seems the concomitant of his condition.

There is a majesty in the might of the great deep, that has a tendency to keep open the avenuces of that dependant credulity, which more or less beside the mind of every man, however in may have fortified his intellect by thought. With the firmanment above him, and wandering on a interminable waste of water, the less gifted seaman is tempted, at every step of his pilgrimage, to seek the relief of some propitious omen. The few which are supported by scientific causes,
give support to the many that have their origins ment. The gambols of the dolphin, the carnes and thusy passage of the propose, the ponderous apporting of the unwieldly whale, and the streams of the marine birds, have all, like the signs of ancient soothsayers, their attendant conseflyings which are explicable and things which are not, gradually brings the mind of the marine for a stafe in which any exciting and unnatural sectiones, if it be for no other reason than that, like the vast clemen to which he passes his life, it bears the impression of what is thought a supernatural, because it is as piled, may be considered been dequeded accedthe deprendent excellence of the deplant which any the condition of the deplant of the deplant of the delivent with their own feame by mindregard and watchful care. Hence on sh sides, that the condition of the dolphin, the carnes any advantage, or contrum any charms, sorrow and sightness of the unwieldly whale, and the streams of the marine birds, have all, like the signs of ancient southsysers, their attendant conseflying a subject of genetate consideration—the deep chart carnes of the support to the many that bave their origin.

See the relief of some propritions omen. The few which are supported by scientific causes,
spice support to the many that bave their origin.

Jess of the delivent was an under the proprint of the delivent was an under the gambols of the delphin, the carnes and the su tensions, and the evil should be deprecated acc mummics that range along our halls, and ralling again into locomotion that machine which a thousand years has seracely been able to put at rest; and Panaceas, Catholicons, Syrups, &c. will be applied to men, a coats of paint are now to our churches, after a centu ry's lapse to give a little freshnem to the exterior-thes will be the haleyon days of our race, the triumph of time as we yet see the bearse in the streets, and the worthy Mr. Pryor, at the health office, sends forth his weekly list of deaths, it becomes us to consider these having yet attained; and hence to view things as the ire, and not as they may be, to take them in esse and not in posse; and perhaps the present is as profitable: moment as any that has offered, when the gentlemen who have attained the affix of M. D. have with an nonmal warmth availed the practice of those who

"Salus populi suprema lex," says the old lati-proverb, and men crowd to the arena of usefulness fulfil its obligation—but as profit is the consequent of practice, it may be supposed that some little jost ling takes place in the course; and fame and wealt are strong incentives for great exertions-suppos then for a moment, that we take an impartial vi the question now in agitation between the licenses and unlicensed practitioner, and by the latter we d and unscensed practioner, and by the understanding not intend those who go up and down understanding prognostics, and dealing in divers drugs, and holding themselves masters of all diseases without previous tudy, or present inspiration—we chose for the presen to compare the claims of the licensed and experienced practitioner with those of the manufacturers of Panaseas, Catholicons, and other medicines compounde of given materials, and recommended for specific por

We entertain a profound respect for the learned professors generally, but in an especial manner, the ranch which is " for the healing of the per gives confidence to the hopes of the languishingourse of liberal studies is more calculated to expande the mind, to give it a just conception of the operation of nature, and consequently of the right direction of science, than that which constitutes a preparation for the medical profession—without its all pervading the human frame a loathsome spectacle of " wound and bruises, and putrified sores." Its kindly influence is exercised from our helpless progress into existence through the various vicissitudes of life, and it bushe he pangs, meliorates the misery, and snatches had he terrors from the bed of death.

It is true that in states of society less refined this hat in which we now live, many of the diseases which annoy us, and employ the whole art of medicine, are wholly unknown—but then it is our luxury that brings he susceptibility of suffering, and the art is the me de, as it keeps pace with our progress in To the skilful surgeon deep gratitude is due and that salutary art when medicine fails, separates the offence with the offending member, leaving a paround, in preference to a whole impure.

may add, that long experience, close observation, and deep reflection have taught physicians to class diseases with much correctness, so that a regular mode of pro eedure may be adopted by practitioners in the variou cases to which they are called to minister, varying only to suit the climate of the place, or habits and constitu-tion of the patient. Besides this, there are complaint diseases of a particular character, assuming generall n all cases similar appearances, and precen milar prognostics, claiming the same origin, developing themselves by like modes of operation, and hence ave been met with similar prescriptions, and lik treatment, by various practitioners of respectable particular disease in different persons, the attention of skilful men have been directed to discover a remo dy for that alone : a combination of drugs which should arrest the progress of the malady, restore health and soundness to the sufferer. That such certain remedies have been found, there can be no doubt, and hen administered by licensed physicians, they have been lauded as salutary in their operations, and conse quently advantageous to the Pharmacoperia; and in proportion to the rapidity of their operations, and the certainty of their success, has been, and we supposingly to be, the high credit in which these medicine and ingredients for compounding these specifics, little skill, it is supposed, would be required in administering hem, the nature of the disease to which they are e applied being distinctly understood.

We come now to another class of practitioners, physicians; we mean those who work with these spe-cifics, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them all QUACKS in the worst sense of the word, if they offer their medicines, formed always of the same in gredients to diverse diseases, arising from different causes and appearing in opposite forms and operations. But if the medicine which cured a disease of an obstiate nature, is applied to another person similarly af feeted, we should suppose that the direction would be sanctioned by all, as being the result of experience; for example, there is offered for sale in this city, a Panaces, the great virtues of which, notwithstanding William Wallis, a Tale, by a Lady (as we ink) is received. We have not had leisure to more than glance over it, but that glance which has generally set medical aid at defiance, when which had buffled the skill of the regular physician, The Poetry furnished by Timothy and Albert, svery welcome.

Hibernicus, with a slight alteration, shall range for which its commended; we cannot then see range for which it is commended; we cannot then see how the term Quackery can apply to the rending and administering this specific in the particular cases to which it has shown itself applicable. If the regular Playsician cannot find out its component parts, he sa wise as his own patients, who do not understand his Latin prescriptions, and he must judge of the medione by its effects, as they do.

One of jection that we have heard advanced against be medicine to which we allude is, that the practite ers do now use it under the name of Essence of Cuisiner, as an excellent remedy in certain diseases; ans they consequently think that "it ought not to be used with such mystery, and sold as a recent discovery." Now, in our opinion, it makes but little difference to the patient, when the medicine was discovered, or how it is sold, provided his disease in cured—and if

Brobblingnagian. That it was not intended for the pit look as if a thousand fire-flee had been let loose, and the cloud of smoke rising afterwards and filling magning the vital principle in the half breathing minimize that ronge along our halls, and calling again not locomotion that machine which a thousand years as seracely been able to put at rest; and Panaecas, latholicons, Syrups, Ne. will be applied to men, as controlled to the put at rest; and Panaecas, latholicons, Syrups, Ne. will be applied to men, as controlled to the put at rest; and Panaecas, latholicons, Syrups, Ne. will be applied to men, as controlled to the put at rest; and Panaecas, latholicons, Syrups, Ne. will be applied to men, as controlled to the put at rest; and Panaecas, latholicons, Syrups, Ne. will be applied to men, as controlled to the put at rest; and locations cake it was—Mrs. Parkinson, with all her culinary skill, never cooked a better. Whether it came from bridegroom or bride will be the halpyon days of our race, the triumph of the close of the put at rest in the late preserved or absence produces and the arts in the arts preservative—mean-residence and the closed of smake rising afterwards and filling pit look as if a thousand free-flee house, and the closed of smake rising afterwards and filling pit looks if a thousand free-flee house, and the closed of smake rising afterwards and filling pit looks if a thousand free-flee house, and the closed of smake rising afterwards and filling pit looks if a thousand free-flee house, and the closed of smake rising afterwards and filling pit looks if a thousand free-flee house, and the closed of smake rising afterwards and filling pit looks if a thousand free-flee house, and th each and all who assisted at the ceremony we return our hearty thanks, and wish the "happy -happy pair, ' a long continuance of this world'

DRAMATIC INTELLIGENCE.

CHESNUT STREET THEATRE. Friday, Feb. 1 .- Damon & Pythias -Rencontre Saturday, Feb. 2.—The Wonder-Village Lawyer Moulay, Feb. 4.—Much Ado about Nothing-Mg

Tuesday, Feb. 5 .- The Inconstant - Abon Hussan Wednesday, Feb. 6 .- Belle's Stratagem-The

Thursday, Feb. 7 .- The Stranger-The Counck mil The Volunteer.

Mr. Allen, a young gentleman of this city, who or several months past has been performing at the harleston Theatre, made his first appearan Philadelphia audience on Friday week, in the charsever of Damon. If, as we have understood is the fact this was the first occasion upon which he had per-formed the part, we think he is entitled to considera His readings were generally good, and his action though somewhat constrained and inelegant, was no unappropriate. There was evalently a strong imita tion of Mr. Cooper throughout the performance, whiel we would advise this young gentleman to lay aside Cooper, great as he sometimes was, had faults in abundance, and imitation more frequently eatches faults than beauties. Mr. Allen has, we think, sufficient ability to sustain a part without becoming more copyist, and we hope he will trust hereafte more to himself than others. By diligent application he will certainly make himself a very respectable as phia, has been a great favourite with all classes of play-goers, and can at all times command good houses. On Saturday night she was warmly welcomhouses. On Saturday night she was warmly welcom-ed by a fashionable audience. There is but little al-teration in this Lady since her last engagement. Her personal appearance has undergone no change, and her setting is characterised by the same glowing beauties, and very nearly the same defects which were then its attributes. In Donna Violante she was, as usual, excellent. Mr. Wood's Felix was a most happy performance, and well deserved the great ap-plause which was bestowed on it. Mr. Weinyss as Col. Briton was very good, and in Lissardo, Mr. Jefferson exhibited his comic powers in his usual style.

We have siways regarded Miss Kelly's Beatrice per even her fine shower person her serentic tones —the propriety of her emphasis, and her perfect knowledge of stage business, when combined, present anowing of stage minness, when comment, present a picture which we have rarely seen equalled, and never surpassed. In some scenes, perhaps, it is a little overwrought, but this can be easily pardoned. Mr. Wood is the Henedick of Shakspeare. Every sentence he otters is given in the spirit of the author, and by the exquisite manner of the actor. Dogberry, the ententious Dogberry, was never better sustained sententions Dogoerry, was never terter unitative than sylder auch an able representative as J.Jefferson, Jr. Mr. Wemyss's Don Pedro was very good. We cannot say as much or his friend Claudie

Mr. Burroughs made his first appearance here thi season on Tuesday, as Young Mirabel, in Farquhar's pleasant comedy of The Inconstant, to a well filled house. He sustained the various humours of the part with great ability and spirit, and in the serious scene was unusually impressive. Mr. Wood's Duretete was as usual, admirable; and Miss Emery's Bisarre was a fair performance.

The Belle's Strutugem was played on Wednesda a fashionable audience, and went off very spiritedly With the exception of the scene in which Letition Hardy plays the hoyden before her "sweetheart," is which Miss Kelly was rather profuse of idiot laugh and vulgar attitudes, we have no objection to her per formance of the part. The Mermaid Song, which she ntroduced, was given in that peculiarly brilliant style for which her singing is remarkable. Mr. Wemyss, as Davicoust, was very easy and gentlemanly, and when occasion required it, ranted in the "true Ercles vein."

On Thursday, Mr. Burroughs played The Stranger to a tolerable house. He was quite successful in the part. The Cossack and The Volunteer a new petite opera, which was produced for the first time on Thursday made a very favourable impression. The music, com-posed by Mr. Beaun, is excellent, and the parts are Arrangements are in a state of forwardness to Arrangements are in a state of forwardness to pull down the front and whole interior of the Walnut Street Theatre, and erect thereon, and on the additional lot, owned by the proprietors, to the east, a splendid building, 96 feet 6 inches in front, upon a plan prepared by John Haviland, Esq. to be supported like the Chesnut Street Theatre, by a thick wall all around the interior between the hoves and lobbs, and seed 63.

On Thursday morning, Mr. MANUS FURY, interior, between the hoves and lobbs, and seed 63. interior, between the boxes and lobby, and east iron columns to the boxes. We are also ineast iron columns to the boxes. We are also informed that the manager, Mr. J. Cowell, will be intimately connected with one of the first Theatres in New York, so as to formish a continual interchange of performers between the two cities.

interchange of performers between the two cities.

The Boston Bolletin of Feb. 1, says, the farewell benefit of Mrs. Sloman at the Federal street. I headre, but exercing, was attended by a very crowded and fashionable sudience. In the affecting teagety of his bella, Mrs. Sloman sustained that arduon character with an effect perhaps never exceeded on our boards. Mrs. Sloman's come decidery in the subsequent entertainments, commanded meessant inferest and applause, and it would be difficult to tell whether the representative of the trage or that of the come mass, deek from their contrary sources the most tears.

Mr. E. Forrest was announced as Virgonius, at the Baltimore theatre, on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Hamblin, we observe, is performing a kind.

at the Baltimore theatre, on Wednesday evening
Mr. Hamblin, we observe, is performing a kind of melange at the Theatre in Augusta, Georgia, consisting of select scenes and recitations from admired authors.

The Salem, (Mass.) Theatre opened on Monday evening with Mrs. Inchbald's comedy of wwives as they were, and Maids as they are.

The Prize Address was spoken by Mr. Foot, and the author announced.

The Brighton English Gazette says, we under

The Brighton English tractice say, we shall stand that Mr. Kean continues in a most alarming state of health, so that it is very doubtful whether he will be able to play again. Two ulcers have, we are told, made their appearance on his face, and he is altogether in a most debilitated condition.

THEATRICALS IN LIMA.

The theatre at Lima, which was opened during the festivities upon the secession of the new Vicercy, was of rather a singular form, being a long oval, the stage occupying the greatest part of one side, by which means the front boxes were brought close to the actions. The audience in the pit was composed entirely of men, and that in the galleries of women (a fashious, borrowed, I believe, from Madrid;) the intermediate space being divided into several rows of private boxes. Between the acts, the vicercy retires to the back seat of his box, which being taken as a signal, that he is to be considered as absent, every man in the pit divided for the season of the s

MARINE INTELLIGINGE.
ARRIVALS SINGE OUR LAST.
Ship Helen Mar, Harrison, 4 days from Charleston, with malze.
Brig Clio, Kirk, 10, Havans, sugar sad coffee.
— Pomona, Newton, 18, New Orleans
— Planet, Gerrish, New Orleans.
— Ann Maris, Jordan, 15, New Orleans, sugar and conton.

cotton. Ann, Ektridge, 9 days from Havans, with indze Francis, Cruft, 4 days from Savannah, with indze.

mdze.
George, Barelay, from New York, with indize ir. Waverly, Smack, 28, Pensacola, cotton.
Triumph, Turner, 6, Savannah, cotton.
Rosper, Myers, 25, New Iberia, sugar and melasses.

Ardent, Soule, 17, Salem, pepper, coffee and Ardent, Soole, 1r, coness, p. p., day.

Ardent, Soole, 4, New York, mdze.
Mirror, Wilcox, 4, New York, mdze.
Caroline, Guier, 8, Wilmington, N. C. mdze.
Argo, Watson, 9, Havana, nugar, &c.
Mary Ann, Johnson, New York, mdze.
Comet, Nevins, 3, Folty Landing, mdze.
James Star, May, 3, New York, indze.
Charles Sidney, Johnson, 28, New Orleans, m asses. Olive, Thatcher, 7, Boston, indize. Caroline, Stevenson, 5 days from Beaufort, with naval stores. Herald, Hall, 5 days from Providence, R. I.

Herald, Hall, 3 days from Providence, B. L. with mdaz.
Virginia, Chambers, 4 days from Washington, N. C. with cutton, N. C. with cutton, TS days from Monte-video, with hides, skins, &c.

CLEARED. Brig Cato, Bisene, Vera Cruz. Schrs. Ecunomy, Bausth, Laguira; Mexican, Pep

MARRIED.

On the 31st ult. by Joseph Watson, Esq. Mayor, DAVENPORT MAROT, to ELIZABETH, daughter of Joseph Pryor, all of this eity.

On the 31st ult. by the Rev. Stephen R. Smith, Mr. THOMAS S. HART, of Delware sounty, to Miss ANNA ROBESON, of Bustleton, Philadelphia county.

On Thursday, by the Rev. James Montgomers D. D. THOMAS McKEAN PETTIT, Esq. to Mis

D. D. THOMAS McKEAN PETTIT, Esq. to Miss SARAH BARRY, daughter of the late Commodore Richard Dale.

On the 7th inst. at Germantown, by the Rev. Mc. King, Mr. JOHN SUPER, of this sity, to Miss ELI-ZABETH FOUSE, of the former phase.

Que the 4th inst. by the Rev. M. B. Reche, Mr. DAVID POTTER, to Mrs. ELIZABETH RAINS. On the 20th ult. by T. J. Kits, Mr. JOSEPH CHAMBERT AND On the 20th ult. by T. J. Kato, Mr. JOSEPH WALRAVEN, to Min LYDIA CHAMBERLAIN

WALKAYER, to save I.

All of the city.

On the 20th oilt, by T. J. Kitts, Mr. HENRY CONLON, to Miss JOANNA MILLAR, all of the Northern Liberties.

On the 7th inst. by T. J. Kitts, Mr. JOHN DUF-FIELD, of the borough of Frankford, to Miss RA-CHEL, daughter of Mr. Job Scott, of the Northern Liberties.

CHEL, daughter of Mr. Job Scott, of the Northern Liberties.

On the 7th inst. by the Rev. Philip F. Mayer, D. D. Mr. AUGUSTUS EMERICK, Ironmonger, to Miss WHILHEMINER, daughter of William Warren, Esq. of Penn Township.

On the 31st uit, by the Rev. Mr. Sigfried, Mr. RICHARD R. HICKMAN, of Westtown Township, Chester county, to Miss MARTHA CHEYNEY, of Thornbury Township, Delaware sounty.

On the 29th uit, by the Rev. J. Chambers, Mr. HENRY FISHER, to Miss LOUISA MANSON, both of this city.

both of this city.

On the 31st old in this city, by the Rev. Dr. Jane.
wav, Mr. FRANKLIN FERGUSON, Editor of the Washington Whig, Bridgeton, N. J. (d Miss LOUISA, daughter of Mr. John V. Ring, of Lancaster city.
On the 30th old, by the Rev. Mr. Potts, Mr. WILLIAM PENROSE, to Miss ALMEND DICK, both of Pathalcholis.

township, Delaware county.
On the 25th uit, by the Rev. Mr. Hughes, Mr.
JOHN GORMAN, to Miss SUSAN M'BRYNE, al

On the 29th ult. by the Rev. Mr. Bowman, Mr. JONEPH B. MYRES, to Miss MARIA H. EBER. MAN, both of Lamester, Pa.
On the 16th ult. by the Rev. Mr. Van Pelt, Mr. JOHN GLADNEY, to Miss MARTHA JACOBS.

On the Stathwark.
On the Stat oft. Mr. WILLIAMS, aged 97 years, Max POLLY CANDLE, aged 13 years, both o

liss POLLY CANDLE, aged 14 year in River Hollow, Mass. Whate'er is odd on Hymen's page, The wags in chyme will twist at Whether in courtship, name or age, The macried one's have nissed it.

But e'en though wittings make a route, And whims severely handle, When life's poor lamp is going out,
'Tis wise to get a candle.

DIED.

On the 6th inst. aged 17 years, Miss HESSY, daugh-er of the late Mr. James Smith. On the 5th inst. of a short illness, JOHN P. minn

ESHER, jr.
On the 6th inst. ELIZABETH, infant daughter of

On the 4th inst. BRIDGET, wife of Terrence

Quin, aged 26 years.
On the 9th oil, at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, aged 22 years, Lt. CHARLES COLERICK, of the 6th Regiment, U.S. Lefactry.
On the 5th instant Frankford, aged 59 years, Mc. EDWARD WOSTAL.

EDWARD WOSTAL.

On the list oit, of a short but severe libress, saged 94 years, MARY, consort of Phylop Sheat, see Eag of Haverford township, Delaware county. Her remains were intered at Radoor church.

At Port up Prince, of yellow fever, Mr. JOHN W son of Robert C. Martio, late of Philadelphia, aged 26

On the 3d inst. in Newcastle, D.I. Hue, JAMES BOOTH, Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas of that state.

WANTED TO RENT,

A PLEASANT DWELLING HOUSE, situated below
A Eighth and above Fourth, between Arch and Spruse.
There must be a neable yard, with a hireben on the ground floor. If there is a list it House a stacked it will be preferred. Bent not to exceed 2500 per annum. A permanent and putnetisal teinant may be had for such premiser, by aldreasing a note to C. 1. at this Office.

THEATRE

A report being in decentation that I had beridden the Orchestra to play the National Airs, I beg have respectfully to inform the publish, that so the front throughout the first I have frequently given decler the following arrangement will take place—precise to the commencement of the play, the Band will play the Overture of the piece, or such Overture as the Lander of the Orchestra may think proper to an include the consense of the Orchestra in the play the time will be useful with a proper to an include the play and faree each night, the time will be useful with a proper that the time will be useful with a proper that the time will be useful with a proper that the play and faree each night, the time will be useful with a proper that the play and faree each night, the time will be useful to a proper to all the play and faree each night, the time will be useful to a proper to a the play and faree each night, the time will be useful to a proper to the the tree, and the leave it is post the property of the The te, should leave it is post the, perfectly nationed with their evening's amusement.

F. G. WEM TSS, Stage Manager:

MISS KELLY's FIFTH NIGHT.

THIS EVENING, February 9, Will be presented, a Cornedy in 5 nots, oiled THE JHALOUS WIPS.

Mr. Oakly, Mr. Wood—Major Oakly, Mr. Wacren.—Charles Oakly, Mr. Sauthwell—St. Harry Beagle, Mr. Jefferson—Lord Trinket, Mr. Wemyen.
Mrs. Oakly, Mion Kelly.

After which, (for the 9d time in this country,) Ketse The Cossack and the Volunteer.

E. BRIGHT,

ARTIFICIAL PLOWER
MANUFACTURER,
No. 65, AHCH STREET, BELOW THIRD.
TO Country Morehands supplied at the discrete series.
6th 9-3m

T. I. & R. POLWELL NO. 97 MARKET STREET, Keep constantly for sale, on secommodating per-a large and complete associated of BRITISH AND ARETROAS DRY GOODS.

IRISH LINENS.

UST received by the subscriber to assessment of rior Graus breats Irish Lineau, from 40 ets as 1810-ets, per yard; Table Lineau 4-4. 7-4, 0-4, and 18-4, with an extensive assessment of other DRY GOOG 4, sale by the piece or yard, at Mn. 44 Morth Sween 4-4, tween 4-7-4 and Market Streets.

T. BMORE.

T. BMORE.

GRORGE MILNER.

CARPET WEAVER, AS removed from his Old Stand, No. 100 Horth Publi

PATENT SHOE TERRADO

LEVY'S, 19 CHESNUT STREET.

will draw in this erty or transfer of the Capitals, 22.000, 6.000, 3.000, 2.500, &c. Whole Tekens, 2000 Quarters, Salves, 2 18 In a great variety, for sale at 1 2 Chesant street, second door below 2 had street. Uncovered money taken at par for Techerts.

All orders promptly attended to [1]

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD The faulten on the night of the around of Pubmary, for the stable of the otherwise in East Cain Tournels near Downington, Chester country, a dark notes mane, and filten hands high, small limbs and deficiently made, a meral trotter, and moves very active; when travelling, or carries her head high, and her more projecting forward, hair is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but it is a cheet dock, but it is a cheet dock, but it is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but it is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but it is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but it is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but it is long and cruers, her tail is a cheet dock, but it is long and cruers of the land of the long and continues of the long and c # hief. feb v-34° THE SPLEMBIN SCHEDE

O' THE UNION CANAL LOFF RRY will be drown or bring read to the Westington Half-Capita Prize REAGNO. For the linely lines and demay industry, down or CONER'S ever furturants office, No. 3 smith Third closes. Philadelphia. Curdon Montanents Lottery will be drawn to day, and the drawing will be received early at Tuesday, and the drawing will be received early at Tuesday marring—Capital prizes 23000, tichness only 21, harves 50 at

BY AUTHORITY.

O'N Wednesday, the 13th test: the drawing of the Union Canal Activity, Gass No. 1 for 1325, will take plain in the public are respectfully informed that a spiral color and the public are respectfully informed that a spiral familiar most of 1 calests and Sharra may be had at FORTUNE'S 100ME, where is will be recollected a very large proportion of large prizes in the various Clastes of the Union Canal Latter bave here such cache as $500,000, 00,000, 10,000, 5,000, 5,000, 2000.

Tickets and Sharre for sale cheap, at P. CANFIELD'S Office, No. 120 Chemist street.

MAJOR GOODSELL TO E. T. SCOTT.

Normagheld, Mass. Nev. 26, 1827.

Sile. Last fall I was induced to try your Panness for the teter, with which I had been affected different years; and by the use of the Theodole of the property with such rounds as to induced by one Doctors, beyond the reach of help was to induced by one Doctors, beyond the reach of help was to induced by one Doctors, beyond the reach of help was construction of the five. With manch difficulty I prevailed in them to try your Panness, as they were very strongly appoint to it, but as they had given her over, they agreed that it might be tried; and before she had taken one bettle the was vailly better, and continued to improve; and alturating five bottles, she was so will as to be able to actend to her domestic concerns. She was at my house the other day, and end had she not taken your Panness, the would not have been after how. Our neighboor request that you will another acte obserns after how. Our neighboor request that you will another vising emp not be destribute of a valuable a medicine.

On the 6th inst. ELIZABETH, infant daughter of Charles F. Watson.
On Thursday, MARY HUGHES, in the eighteenth year of her age.
On Thursday morning, Mr. MANUS FURY, aged 63.
On Wednesday morning, EDMUND TORY, aged 4 years and 3 months, son of Thomas Mellion.
On the 2th inst. at New York, aged 26 years, Mr. GEDRGE SOULE.
On the 3th inst. aged 8 years, JULIANA, daughter of Joseph Whitaker.
On the 3th inst. aged 8 years, JULIANA, daughter of Joseph Whitaker.
On the 3th inst. aged 8 years, MARY B daughter of the late Samuel Harnes.
On the 3th inst. aged 23 years, MARY B daughter of the late Samuel Harnes.
On the 3th inst. aged 23 years, MARY B daughter of the late Samuel Harnes.
On Friday, the 1st mat. Dr. JOHN JONES, aged 30 years, After a lingering illness, Mr. THOMAS SOUDER, aged 26 years, Mr. Alver a lingering illness, Mr. THOMAS SOUDER, aged 26 years.
On the 3d inst. of pulmonary consumption, MARY ANN, consort of Mr. John E. Keen, aged 25 years, On the 3d that after a longering illness, which he lore with christian fortitude and resignation, EMMA JOAN JENKINS, aged 12 years.
On the 3d that after a longering illness, which he lore with christian fortitude and resignation, EMMA JOAN JENKINS, aged 12 years.
On the 3d inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. Souther with christian fortitude and resignation, EMMA JOAN JENKINS, aged 12 years.
On the 3d inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. South Christian fortitude and resignation, EMMA JOAN JENKINS, aged 12 years.
On the 3d inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. Souther with christian fortitude and resignation, EMMA JOAN JENKINS, aged 12 years.
On the 3d inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. Souther with christian fortitude and resignation, the second at the time of him the second at the inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. Souther the consumption of the second at the inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. Souther the consumption of the second at the inst. of the consumption, Mrs. Ann. Souther the consuming of about newly access about one half of white second at the inst. of the co DR. JONES' UNIVERSAL SYRUP.

the desired of the control of the projecty of WILLIAM HAPMAN, of such towns up and control decay six as HAPMAN, of such towns up and control decay six as the List the property occupied by the control of the first first state of the control of the

WASHINGTON'S

At the Manonic Hall, Chestrut Street.

At the Manonic Hall, Chestrut Street.

At mod the public, that he initiate giving in selectuation of that day, a buteripinin HALL, he which the lift is sweptiment at the liftly such subscriber will be spreighted to two Ladies Tickets. The spartments will be appreciately decorated, and brilliantly illuminated with Gis.

Those Ladies who have recursed Tickets to the Quadrillee, are particularly invited to the above Hall. F. Johnson and linad are engaged for that evening. The Codition Party coming on the tild Feb. the same is portpaned, and will take place on the Monday Editowing, the Stath ions.) the describion of the room will remain for that evening.

TO LET.

COUNTRY STORE, as old and can lend stable for business, together with a summandless dwelling besieve, and four accept of land, on which is a good beating self-storate in Branchtown, six miles merk of Phila-ic. Apply to the subset of the next the premises.

D. Van Cuba on rk, after a violen
d boune, ate, the dil swept ho, after off by a ried in the n York a way the were a cry can-g to the . E. and rts were opy from spiration andering reasons ome tea ed atten-ifted and re matter gan,

long,

tears

NWAY. Daily Adrn situatel onsiderside themelus the bird, mily, were resting in a great may ats, tapors, black sket, liver, orni hich renk veral plac transparted to the lettle oxen. oxen et burn. ngly number of and prothe fan of rect, lably ing repair, nto a boos

EWS.

ook, Established by the line of nded, and ithout part an elegal the Walst, as launched harton, as on Mo-at the soin o, at she's Variety's the very spice of life, That gives it all its flavour. ----

POR THE SATURDAY STREETS POST.

The god whose pipe returns the lay Of the slepherds as they sweetly p Of the shepherds as they weeth printing gradient when with meriting gradient Clinical the golden gates of day;
The feunder, as supposed to be.
Of the ascient Chinese memorichy;
The god whose faming charies buy
Diffuses through the world be light; Defines through the work state of the A fernale, who from toxe did loop.
Upon her brokenal's fasteral heap?
A fittle word which is expressed,
When an effirmative's condensed;
The initial princel, present to view,
A flower, instructed buff and blue. J. S. D.

STUPIDITY.

"I believe the jury have been inoculated for stupidity," and a lawyer. "That may be," said his opponent, "but the bar are of opinion that you had it the natural way."

A Chemist in Albany, a few days ago, expatiating on the late discoveries in chemical science, observed that snow hal been found to possess a considerable degree of heat—an Irishman present at this remark, observed that truly chemistry was a valuable science, and (anxious that the discovery might be made probable) enquired of the practice, while sufficient to boil a ten keatle bead, said, "Place your Henor, I do not remem-ber—or if I do, I forget it now."

Judge Brackenridge in reprimanding a crimi-mal, among other hard names, called him a ecoundrel. The prisoner replied, "Sir, I am not so great a secondrel as your honour takes me to be."—"Put your words closer to-gether," replied the judge.

for applied to them, We want buils, will you sell them? They answered, " We want poteder send us powder and we'll return your balls."

Two men, the one a philosopher and the other fool, were in the service of the same master and slept in the same bed; the philosopher lay in the outside. One morning, having overslept hemselves, the master, coming in with a whip. flogged the philosopher, who happened to be nearest on his entrance into the room. This I will avoid another time, said the philosopher to himself; on the next night, therefore, he changed sides with the fool.—In the morning they again transgressed, and the master came to chastise

THE SCHOOL OF PLORA.

Freich Name I Chaopode.

A labiate plant like mint, eage, and basil. The Laboute form a fine natural urder, easily known by the flowers with lipe, and a seeds, more hast two stamins the the ange, and lesions to Diameters of Linamus, others like this base foor, a long and 2 short, whence the class, Dydnamus of Linamus.

Affid Basil, is a native of Farryte and the United States, from New England to Maryland, it green in Felda and groves. The whole plant has a fine seem, but not so seed as the garden Basil of India or Grymans. It biosenous is a namner and produces theny beads of purplah flowers. It has the methed properties of Marjerson and Belts.

Rect primanal, Stems 2 or 2 feet high, straight and histy haves coposite, with short petidies, seed, a little accreased. However is thick conside heady, with along most librateoles. Contain bilabiante, apper fip takes, hower his tribles.

ON MISS ANN BREAD-A Pun. This coasts their lovely graces apread,
And lops regard these flotter;
It be content with Anne B coal,
And son't have say but her.

THE SUN PLOWER.

THE SUN PLOWER.

The value of the plant, which is easily cultivated, and unamental to the garden, is easietly known in most parts of the country. The seed forms a most excellent and convenient feed for positry, and it is only necessary to cut off the heads of the plant when tipe, to them in bunches, and hang them up in a dry situation, to be used as wanted—they not only rapidly fasten every kind of positry, but greatly increase the quantity of eggs they hay. When enticasted to a considerable extent, they also are espital feed for sleep and pigs and for chickens. The leaves when dried, forms a good fastler for cattler the dry atalks burn well, and afford abundance of alkali, and when in bloom, the flower is most attractive to bees.—The

A black woman in New York was indicted for steeling a gener. The testimony was clear, strong, and positive. It was however, a dead gone which she atole, and with the head off. The offence laid in the indictment, was "stealing a gone." It ought to have been stated a dead gone. Microver, the head was off, it was therefore, only a part of a goose that she stole. The indictment was held to be defective, and her ladyship of course escaped.

HALF MUURNING.

A little girl hearing her mother say the was going in helf mourning, inquired if any of her relations were half dead.

On a recent trial, an Irishman, with characteristic obliquity of speech, after scratching his head, said, "Place your Hener, I do not remember—or if I do, I forget it now."

MESSES EDITIONS—By inserting the following recept to extract grease spots from cloth, is our useful paper, you will confer a benefit on

Max Pengs Green a seamstress was, In person tall and lean,
Though facty five and drying fast,
She still remained Green

Wax she evanophile of to could she play Upon the Praemo-

I pan the Pranto-Speak French-Italian-du you ask f Lanswer, "she could see ?"

No wonder then that lovers two
For her in across wasted,
Long sleepless nights—for grievously
Their hearts Man Green had builted!

Jem Salch the tador, (he was one,)
With here whose heart did glow,
All for this maid of forty five,
Who had treated him—sew sere!

"Or, " cruel Peg 1" cried Jemmy Stuch,
"Or all my hopes, the root,
My heart is ent, by boye's sharp shears,
Oh ! do not seem my mate!"

And som pose Sinch, he was of thin, Hornors like diets del sit;

He haved her quite as ardently,
But with as lattle use—
The work a Projestick in his heart,
And forge stuck in his above /

"My love,' cried he, "for Peggy Gr

And graven on my rate !! He sighed in vain—she floated him, Her search he deeply felt,

He seem he deeply felt, As flowers kitled by cruel frost, He seem began to well!

Now when she saw their love to true, To choose she knew not which; There slays she nothing did but think, The fourth day saw her State k.

And now it was not long before Was heard the world news, That Jerumy Stark his cival was, A morthing in his shore?

their wit backen, when he saw things. Had some to such a poss. My days are numbered non 10 mg/s/d he, or And near me is any fore 20

In case to home the discours did,
The trades and physics need.
He failed apreced a even given shire,
And nearest watered his conf.

A lack a der 1 in seried, it she To me flexive lost? I cannot —count give up Peg, And then gave up the glood? See Mr. Starte, and Mrs. Stach, Increased to go and riches a and some forgot poor Water, Wax, Whelat beging different stateber 2

A GARDEN PARM.

CONTAINING these names, situated on the Point to Point to Point Road, two units and a half above Kenangton, affected inches in a rate accumondating terms. Also, on bours and let, No. 22 North Front Street, to yield an interest of 2 per cent. SANUBLEM. LYNN, 184 No. 4th Oct. 2017.

Columbian Dancing Assembly,
The Bord bell of the Assembly will be beld at the some Hall, Chestua street, on Flurnday evening ich instant.
The Managers will arrend in the Hanquetting or back room of the Hall, on durday and Torollay evening, the 112 and 12th inst. Iron 7 units 12 o cloth, for the purpose of the income of the test.

(b) 2 or 2.

EXCHANGE OFFICE,

No. 26 South Fourth street.

WANTED, One, Two and Three Dollar Notes, (notes of which are received at the Banks in this city, a 1-4 per cent.

Linearrent Notes on Bonks in all States, exchanged at the Linearrent rates of discount.

The highest price given for notes on all healers banks.—
Checks and Draits on all the principal exten soils excl. Exchange on New York and Box on, for sale by high Notes of the 2-21.

So. 20 South Fourth stages. fib 3-31*

PULMEL,

A Specific Remeily to CURE and PREVENT the

1 Mills valuable new remedy fately discovered by a ge-men of great Medical, Chemical and taste are need, balance and present; a may be used in any way, and even in large does without surject; but in any way, and even in large does without surject; but ought always to be larged dituted when taken internity, Many proparations may in for subalation, have been adopt internal use, and the Bank be made with it, the Syrup for each case of the Bank of subalation, have been adopt internal use, and the Bank, choose does not be taken daily a spoonful is a door, from 3 to doors may be taken in the subalation and the subalation of the subalation of

THE PULMEL,

Since manufactured and in he had of the following nam. Proggats in the city of Philadelphia. John Figet Is how, No. 12 couts 2a street.

Wollam Getsam & Co. George Carnoth.
George M. Hourne, 350 Broadway.
F. Dickey, Lesponard & Boo way.
L. D. Gram. 15 Broadway.
Br. Fuiton, Fuiton & Gold street.
S. Habeut.

H. Elmor & Co. Printers.

New Haven, Conn. 8. Babeuch.
S. Carter.
Hotelbirs, Graham & Clark-Johnston & Tockton.
Dr. Wilstach.
Fodd & Jewell.
Joshus Harlan.
Ly, Mac Bac. Sex Oricans. Setsing g. Pa. Vashington, D. C.

J. H. BARLE.

DITAPER AND TAILOR,

ETUINS his grateful thanks to his friends and the publie, for their überal patranage, and takes this methos informing them that he has taken into partificable, but Ware', whose expressee in the science of extring h

TO PRINTERS.

To Western and Southern

MERCHANTS.

or approved paper. OSEPH T. M'MULLIN.

CITIZEN'S COACHES

FOR NEW YORK,

DAILY, at 4 o'clock, and half past ten o'clock, A. M.
via Reistol, Princeton, itamia
wick, Efizabethioan, Neware, ast Law leaves the offices, No. 21 South Third street, 22 South Third street, every morning at 4 o'clock, and via in New York early the same afternoon, count Lam haves the same office revery day, at half past o'clock, lodge at New Humawick, and arrise in New to took, lodge at New Humawick, and arrise in New
to took, lodge at New Humawick, and arrise in New to took thest morning.

It For weats apply at the offices, 24 South Third street, or provide City Hotel.

Valuable Country Stand FOR RENT.

to peak some given the first of April next, or smiler and. For particulars apply in the Past Master at the mountained place, either by letter or personally.

TO TEACHERS.

REMOVAL.

The Subscribers have relinquished the relation de-purtment of their lauriers, and removed their establishment to NOS. 8 & 10 SOUTH FOURTH ST.

Bath Buildings at Long Branch, N. J. FOR SALE.

Long Branch, N. J. CHARLES H. WHITE, p. 100 Walnutstreet, Philadelphia. Warranted water proof boots and shoes.

COPPERS COMPECTIONARY. O. 174 Cheanut street-Mr. and Mrs. PARKI touly grateful for the fiberal encouragement have constantly experienced, beg bave to state, that

CLERMONT ACADEMY.

MHs Institution will be opened on the 1st of 4th month (April) next as a boarding school for boys. The course of studies will be Rending, Writing, Arithmese, Algebra, Geometry, Mensuration, Surveying, English internat, Geography, with the use of Maps and Globes, and Elements of Natural Philosophy.

Lernsfor Fution, bioarding and Washing, &c. R35 per porter in abstance. Latin and French R5 per quarter adiatonal. The situation is one of the most healthy and pleasant in the vicinity of the city, 3 miles distant from it on the call leading from Frankford to Germantown.

SAMUELL S. GRISCOM.

Reference in the city to Jacob Bidgway or Thomas Rotch, Equ.

agrs.
Until the let of 3d ma. (March) applications for inform on through the pest office, to 5. Griccom, Wilmingto el Shail neet with immediate a tention. dec 22 3m.

PRENCH EVENING SCHOOL,

No. 73 Pine street.

No. 73 Pine street.

has uponed an exemung school at the Academy of Messes. Watson & Gayley, where he divots his attention to the instruction of young excitence of serious of arguing a

REMOVAL.

Cough Drops, or Indian Specific,

Cough Drops, or Indian Specific,
Cough, Ashmas and a greaching consumptions.

FESTIMONIALS,
Latherster country, st.
Personally appeared before, E.
Mayor of the City of Lather for and being duly sworth and the several ydopsed, as declared, that they had ma use of the Clarkons Feeman use of the Clarkons Feeman theory:

Marini Light, of Laneaster, aged 50 years; a long time gricewood; affected as ha violent cough, pain and stiches in the odds and houset, spitting of matter in his longs, night sweats, and hettie fiver, and much conscited and his life dependent of, was completely cured by using 3 buttle, non-mind left at this office, with the promptly extended in the late of the late o

ATTORNEY, AGENT, And Conveyancer's Office.

At his Office No. 8 outh Futl

DR. JOHN I. MAYWEG

TRENDERS his profusional services to the citizens of Philadelphia and its vicinity, and respectfully begs leave to inform them that he may at all times be consulted at his offier, No. 52, south side of Callowhill, between Front and Necond streets, Northern Liberties—Having for upwards of Gour years, studied with the hise Dr. Bedjamin S. Barron, Professor of Materia Medica, Natural History and Botany, in the University of Pennsylvania, and having during that time attended at the Hospital of Pennsylvania, as his student. Dr. Mayweg trusts the public will not consider it presumptions to state, bat he has been regularly bred to the medical profession. Can be consulted in the morning till half past 9, in the aftermon from 1 to 3, and during the evening. He also informs the public that after many years study and research, he has succeeded in discovering the following installible remedies; extracted from and composed of vegetables for the cure of disease, the first of which has herertofore builled all the arts of regular practice, to administer an antidote to its decadful effects.

Induced by repeated solicitations of many of those who have been relieved, and from moviews of humanity, Dr. Mayweg thinks proper to adopt this mode of circularion, in order to give them a greezef degree of publicity, and to pender them more extensively useful, than they could possible be, were they to be comined any longer to DR. JOHN I. MAYWEG

otic and Nervous Balsam

THIS Medicine is a safe and efficacious remedy in all affections of the nervous system, particularly in FITS HISTERICS, S.T. VITUS'S DANCE, CRAMPS, TE TANUS, (OR LOCKED-JAW) &c. The experience which I have had of the efficacy of this medicine for upwards of eighteen years in my own private practice, enables not to reconsumed it with confidence to the public, at I vearcely knew it to fail where the patient strictly adhered to my directions.—Price M2 50 per plus! A sit is customary to give proof of a medicine when offered to the public, to show its superior remedial powers, I have thought proper to add the following communication, copied from the U.S. Gazette, of the 12th inst. Cheering mews to those Afflicted.

meation, espical from the U.S. Gazette, of the 12th inst.

Cheering news to those Afflicted

WIFH EPILEPSY.

I was for a length of time afflicted with convulsions which increased to such an alarming degree, that it Appl 1884. I had from these to to, and irrequently feetfer this a day; during this tone an eminent physician attend of and prescribed for me, but all the prescribins were in vain: the hadady still increased, and for six days a succession. I had as many as them to gravitations a day.

No. 5, Sanderson's Court, between St. John's and streets, above Poplar Lane, Northern Liberties. Remittent, Intermittent or Ague

ACHITCHI, INTERMITTENT OF AGUE AND FEVER DROPS.

In the course of my practice I have found this medit
cine to be passessed of invaluable properties in specifity checking and effectually removing the most obstinate cases of REMITTANT, IFERMITTANT FEVERS, and AGUES, where the greater part of the re-CERS, and AGUES, where the greater part of the re-medies now used in common practice have tailed.—I con-ceive it my duty to offer this medicine to the public, as thousands are every season suffering for months under these diseases, which frequently lay the foundation for other disorders fatal to the afflicted.

These drops are also an experience. other disorders fatal to the afflicted.

These drops are also an excellent remedy for the periodical HEADACHE, under which hundreds suffer the most executeating tormeast for years, without being who to obtain relief—I bey are so perfectly unocent that no eval effect may be apprehended from them when used exceeding to the direction—They may be given to tender infants and teeble adults—Price &I per phial.

ding to the direction—They may be given to tend lants and feeble adults.—Price 81 per phial.

Infallible Vegetable Worm Tea

Intallible Vegetable Worm Tea AND POWDERS.

A safe and effectual renedy for destroying of every pears of Worms medent to the homan body, and may be given with safety to tender infants and women in the not delicate tate, if even the discase should not originate from worms, but some other cause, the patient with the centre absencit, as there examed be a better medicine han the YEGE FARLE WORM FOWDERS, for opening obstituctions cleaning the stomach and baseds of time and erudities, destroying the slow inward fevers am of their effects, which trequently produce the most arming disorder that assuit cholders, by which thou ands are animally swept off, which the bills of mortal volume from the first period of the holds of mortal volume from the compact that assuit cholders, by which thou ands are animally swept off, which the bills of mortal volume from the compact that a will plainly demonstrate.—Price 75 cents.

A supply of the above Medicines are constantly kept on hand-proper directions accompany each.
JOHN L. MAYWEG, M. D. Philadelphia, July 28th, 18.7—cw3teowty.

Highly Interesting

TO THE AFFLICTED. Public are respectfully informed that 's COUGH DROPS and Perford Purcle extensive use for a years past, proved the but of such as are menerable, there are but few but what what wail be greatly releved by the use of them. Searcely a case of Colds, Coughs, Pain in the sade, difficulty of obsenting, want of sleep, arining from debiting, or even seated consumptions, but may be relieved by a timely use of this Healing Balaam. Each Dollar Bottle of this medicine contains about 40 docs, which proves them to be a ch-ap medicine considering their virtues.

Sold Wholeseke and Retail by E. & C. Yarnell, & Co.

I. Thomson, T. W. Dyutt, Bettie & Jenking, and Smith & Pearsall.

TROTTER'S GENUINE

Pectoral Balsam of Horehound,

For Coughs, Colds, Asthonas, Communition, Nhortness of Breath, Hosping Cough, Selection of Health, Hosping Cough, Selection of Norwish, Connecteur, "Freing graitede for the benefits received, and wishing my fellow men to be benefited in the same way, I feel induced to make the following declaration: For about four years I was afflicted with a volent cough, attended with all the symptoms of a confirmed primorary complaint. In great was my delays, that I was unable to attend to my homores or public duties, my foundation and the duties and strend to my homores or public duties, any foundation that the min declines and after taking every medican recommended, without effect, I was recogned to my late, and housed forward to the glave as the only place of reloct.

be only place of reduct.

It was at this time that I heard of Amete's Bales at the time that I heard of Amete's D. Orain, of flow York. I was induced to tryit, when surprising to elate, the first bottle afforded relief; and by continuing ourse it. I have been restored to my usual health and trength; and I can cheerfully recommend it to all home sufficied in tike manner, as the most beneficial a derive now in use. (signed) ABSALOM DAY.

October, 1227. ABSALOM DAY:

Pearsall, Jr. conture of Market and Third streets, Philadelphia; and in New York by O. Hull, & Co. 221, threadway, by J. D. Coan, 315, Broadway, and L. Preudint, corner of Broadway and Grand street.

CANARY, MOCHING & RED (JBIRDS. aD)

there sthat.

GEORGIE W. FARR.

WOOLLEN DRIPER & TAILOR.

No. 204 MARKET STREET.

Neat door above the Red Lion Hote!

I As received by late arrivals from London an eigental street of the street of t

NOTICE TO EVAN DAVID. WHERRAS JOSHUA DAVID of Recently, Rad deceased, demised by his last Will ments, a share of his property to his breeker from David in case he should be living; this is to relieve to said fiven David, to come forward and chain his the said property.
Published pursuant to the last Will and Ten John a Barid.
June 19-19

Newcassle country.

MISSES BARNARD'S

ACADEMY FOR LADIES,
No. 1 Breath street, one door from 77 Arch direct,
A HERE various branches of an Anglia edecad, arc taught, comparing Harding, Plain and Orphy, with the use of the Globolish of Grammar, Goring and velver Painting; together Grammar, Goring and velver Painting; together Williams and the men style of Lace work.

The Tankar, Painting of the Comparish is a part and the new style of Lace work.

Terms made known on application.

Terms made known on application. nor 17-of Benjamin M. Hollinshend, As established a Retail Store, as No. 12 North a street between Market and Arch its above to street between Market and Arch its above to for sale a general assortment of Dig Goods, supported to the Cassmett's Ladice Habst Cloth, Hot Cassmett's Ladice Habst Cloth, Hot Cassmett's Cassmett's Ladice Habst Cloth, Hot Cassmett's Assorting to the Cassmett's Cassmett's Cassmett's Assorting to the Cassmett's Cass

SADDLERY, HARNESS, AND CACH FURNATURE

F. A. HUREH, offer for Sale, at N. of Rec.

Thard street, opposite Heisekeith Herel, a lowand general assortment of imported and Assertant lowest prices for cash or acceptances—comising of the varieties of plated, brass, tinned, japaned steel, weed, woodlen, cotton, and linen furniture, together acconstant supply of hog akins.

Jane 23—d.

JUST PUBLISHED, And for Sale by DAVID CLARK, No. 148
North Fourth Street, Philadelphia,
DR. WATT'S PSALMS AND HYMNS.

A RILANGED by Dr. RIPPON, with Dr. Rippon's selection, in one volume, with two handsome entrings; printed on very fine paper, from New Sterney Plates, and strongly bounds at $1, 185 and $2.

HARDWARE STORE LESLEY & MEREDITH, No 241 Morta above 6th street, have just opened a complete Assortment of

HARDWARE & CUTLERY CONSTRING of Leeks, Latches, and Hippes, of kinds; Serews, Pullius, Nail, Brast was, tools, Planes, Fides, Andirons, shovel and tongs, and shovels, knives and forks teacer, estions, perpeter knives, spoons, hollow ware, Je. Gr. Gr. Man, he will self, Wholessle or Retail, at very reduced they will self, Wholessle or Retail, at very reduced oct 37-60. WILLIAMS OGLE, Clock and Watch Maker, 9, South 6th 2.

ESP ECTFULLY informs his feeds and the pole, that he has commenced business at the three place, where all orders in his time will be thankfull as crived, and punctually attended to. He will also keeped, and punctually attended to. He will also keeped, and punctually attended to. He will also keeped and an assert point of Watches, Jewelry, Kee.

S. B. Clocks and Watches carefully repaired and watranted to give satisfaction. Phila. Nov. 24—6.

CHARCOAL. ORDERS for Oak or Pine COAL, left at No. 46 Dat street, will be immediately supplied, in the city country adjoining, by the subscriber, who brings in an keeps on band a good supply. nov 3—11

PULMONARY BALSAM,

TOR THE CURE of Pithisis or Pulmonary Ca-amption, Ashma, Rheumatic Inflammation at a llammation and Tuberces on the Lungs, Cough, Cal-Hoarsettes, Spitting of Blood, and Catarrhal defer-on the Breast, PREP MRED BY THE PROPRIETOR. DR. B. M. SMITH,

No. 176 Race street. Philadelphia.

The proprietor is pericettly aware of the variety of Medicines that have already been offered to the point, as well as the repeated impositions that have we practised upon the afflicted. In onlier one insertable priparation as a specific, or a variety of discussive, would be look presumptions and complicate, and as reprehensible as would be insulting to the understanding of meliphas ed community. The properiotor therefore whites to a strict his medicine to one class of nitrates only, in implication to which, he trusts, he shall have no caused apprehension, cither from the reproach of the afflicted or the secuting of sciences.

cases, for the benefit of those who may be affected with minuter complaints.

Having been acverely afflicted with a disease of the lungs, attended with alarming symptoms, and dising to obtain a core from any of the various sources to which had recourse, I applied to Dr. B. M. Smith, who in shot time effected what to me appears to be a permanent of the control of the last mine months.

Flaind, Jan 27, 1827.

No. 18, Arch Succ.

Flaind, Jan 27, 1827.

No. 18, Arch Succ.

This is to certify, that for five years past I have been afflicted with the Arthma to a distressing degree. In the total numerous remembers, and had much medical show, without effecting a core—in this state I applied to Be Smith—chained some of his Pulmonary Lisans, and the space of twenty-lour hours, was sensibly referred by continuing the medicance after the No. 114, N. Fitth Storet.

Philad. Jan. 27, 1825.

This may creatly, that I had been for sometime in a declaiming aspect of health, when, in the year 1824, my disease assumed a more alarming aspect—I became analysis for all the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments and another alarming aspect—I became analysis for all the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments who had a sense of the state of the state of the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments who had a sense of the state of the state of the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments from the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments of the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments of the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments in the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments from the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments of the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments of the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments from the symptoms attendant on pulmonary comments of the symptoms of the symptoms

Vot. PU

ORI The t No Up And I

A lor

THE P. LEWIS CO., LANSING Wide o'er tl The unjur Alike upo On all the S His beams And gilt th Sickness ma And pions pe

> This we Purse Its pleas

And :

The blo That

Shall tr That

The ent And pr That They One sin Ah, wh Oppr To shu

And

Nor

Where

Wat And se Erel Or, daz 1.01 Rash Full tat The In se

Oh, ble

Oh, he

Again we h The dark Time plant To help ob We fade fr Who revel

To many a Thomas onda Who will n Thousands From man This is the Which ere While eve How short Standley!
Confirming
That it ma
As bright,
A peacefu May these

My muse, Would do But fears t Thy pleas The kind! Which on Buts the d And check

Pleasing i Courtenus Corveet in In faith a : These are Oh may th

Haverfure